

Murphy—Velten wed in Norval

A recent wedding at Norval Presbyterian Church, a double ring ceremony united Rhonda Ruth Murphy, daughter of Howard and Gerry Murphy, Georgetown and Mike Velten, son of Norbert and Gitta Velten, Mississauga, in marriage.

Rev. Ian MacPherson officiated. A. Dale Wood was organist and Don Madale, soloist.

The bride wore a full length, long-sleeved ivory georgette gown with a rolled neckline and a Princess Diana hat. She carried a cascade of silk, burgundy and pink roses and baby's breath.

Rhonda Ruth Murphy and Mike Velten were married in Norval.

Maid of honor was Donna Humberstone, friend of the bride. Sally Humberstone, sister of the bride and Connie Velten, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore identical two-piece raspberry, georgette gowns, and carried bouquets of silk pink and burgundy roses.

Chris Newby, friend of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Barry Humberstone, brother-in-law of the bride and Derek Murphy, brother of the bride.

A reception followed at the Lions Hall in Georgetown. Don Humberstone acted as master of ceremonies. Special guests were grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. Ruth Graye and Mrs. Sarah Murphy from N.B.

The bride and groom honeymooned in Switzerland, Austria, Luxembourg and West Germany.

On November 5, a green and silver wedding ceremony was celebrated in Lohfelden, West Germany. Rhonda and Mike joined his parents in a renewal of vows in German and English. They travelled from the church to the Hotel zur Poste in an open horse drawn carriage and hosted a reception for 120 friends and relatives of the Velten. The bride's parents and groom's sister were guests at the festivities.

Prior to their marriage, Rhonda was honored at showers hosted by Irene Seglet, Oakville, and Donna and Marilyn Humberstone, Georgetown. The groom was honored at a stag hosted by Chris Newby.

Mike and Rhonda are both employed at Peel Industrial Supplies, Brampton, and will take up residence in Georgetown in March, 1984.

Helpful hints

TWO WEEKS BEFORE: (Final preparations are at hand!) Have you...
 —checked with caterer, (number of guests, menu)?
 —put your gifts on display?
 —arranged for bridesmaid's luncheon?
 —reminded best man and maid / matron of honour not to forget wedding bands?
 —arranged accommodation for out-of-town guests?

—made final check with caterer, drinks supplier, orchestra, photographer, transportation source?
 —packed for honeymoon?

If you have got this far and have answered 'yes' to all of the above, then it's smooth sailing from here on!

Good luck and have a wonderful wedding!
