

Brabant-Turner wed in St. John's

In a November double-ring ceremony at St. John's United Church, Pamela Brabant and Timothy Turner were united in marriage.

The service was conducted by Rev. Jeff Davison, with Adan Brown organist and Kim Lutzman, sister of the bride, soloist.

The bride, the daughter of Joyce and Robert Brabant, Georgetown, wore a long gown with layers of lace and a hoop skirt.

Bridesmaids Michelle Monks, Donna Bessey and Carylin Whittaker were dressed in long lace rose-colored gowns while the matron of honor, Pam Watson was in pink.

The groom, the son of Tom and Louise James, of Georgetown, had Bob McCandless as groomsman and Bob Hamilton, Tom Davies, and Terry Turner, brother of the groom as ushers.

At a dinner and dance reception at St. George's Church hall, Jason Field acted as master of ceremonies, and Tom Watson offered the toast to the bride.

Special guests at the wedding were the groom's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Staden.

Prior to the wedding showers were held by Evelyn Field and Nellie Bell, and Denean Jones.

After a brief honeymoon the couple are now living at RR 2, Georgetown.

Pamela Brabant and Timothy Turner exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony at St. John's United Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Jeff Davison.
