Irish beauty — Mountains of Mourne

Catherine Graham of RR 1, Limehouse writes an article annually about her native Ireland for this newspaper on the eve of St. Patrick's Day, Ireland's national holiday. This year she has chosen the Mountains of Mourne as her subject. Catherine was born in Mourne.

to be derived from a branch of the McMahon clan, who migrated from County Monaghan around the middle of the twelfth century. Around the end of the same century the Normans invaded Ireland and pushed back the settlers from the coastal districts. To this day descendants of the old clans still live in the foothills of the "Mournes".

Many songs have been written about the "Mournes". I would say the most famous was written by Percy French. I will give you a verse.

*O Mary this London is a wonderful sight,
Where people are working by day and by night.
They don't grow potatoes or barley or wheat,
But there is gangs of them digging for gold on the street.
At least when I asked them that is what I was told.
So I fast took a hunt in the digging for gold,
But all I found there sure I might as well be,
Where the Mountains of Mourne Sweep down to the sea.*

Catherine Graham
RR 1, Limehouse

The Mountains of Mourne

This massive range of mountains known as the Kingdom of Mourne, runs 14 miles along the coast between Newcastle and Rostrevor and are seven miles in width. It comprises 40 domed shaped peaks the highest being Donard and Bingham. They are famous for their granite; it is very fine in grain and colour and takes a high polish.

The Mourne men were famous in days gone by for being stone cutters. Today they have been replaced by machinery. Irish diamonds and rock crystals were often found amongst the granite.

The name "Mourne" is said

A. Chesworth receives award

by Mrs. G. MacDougall

Congratulations to Mrs. Ann Chesworth who was recently awarded a certificate for Service to Mankind during a dinner at the Italian Canadian Club in Guelph. Ann was one of the top six volunteers honored by the Sertoma Club of Guelph. Ann has been a diligent worker with the Brownie, Girl Guide and Pathfinders for 13 years and is on the provincial executive and also edits two national guiding magazines.

Hearty congratulations to Ted Barden who brought home four gold medals from the Indoor Speed Skating at Hicksville, Long Island, New York.

David van Rhijn enjoyed a trip to Kamloops, B.C. where he was skiing with the Canadian Junior Championships.

The United Church Women were hosted for the World Day of Prayer meeting with 40 ladies present. The guest speaker was Miss Mary Ellen Nettle and readers were from area churches, Milmosa, Speedside, Barrie Hill, Stone United, Everton, and the local United and Presbyterian churches.

The Friendly Seniors invited all folks who are interested in a friendly game of cards to their Euchre Party being held in the Community Hall on Friday, March 16, at 8:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Blacklock, Burlington, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rinehart. They had attended the Eastern Star dance in Guelph.

Legion happenings

by Al McKerracher

Your Branch is in desperate need of colour party volunteers. If you feel you could serve your Branch in this capacity, it would be appreciated if you would leave your name and phone number at the bar or call Sgt.-at-Arms Stan Laughlin at 858-4392.

Something else that is in continuous need-paper back books. Instead of gathering dust at home, bring them in to the Branch and leave them in the box by the door.

This Saturday evening, Don Weir will be providing the music for a St. Patrick's Day Dance in the main hall. Your admission includes a tasty stew so pick up your tickets at the bar and enjoy an evening out. The "Pub Night" scheduled for March 24 has been postponed to April 14. For those who wish to show their talents, get in touch with your entertainment chairman, Jim Waller.

DRAWES EVERY SUNDAY FOR PRIZES

Bateman original
Internationally acclaimed artist and naturalist Robert Bateman has donated his newest wildlife painting to the Milton District Hospital Expansion Fund and $25 draw tickets went on sale this week.

The original painting is of a White-Throated Sparrow with Pussy Willows, a common sight on the Bruce Trail—one of the artist's favorite haunts.

One lucky ticket buyer will win the prize at "An Afternoon with Robert Bateman" at Milton District High School on Sunday, April 29.

Draw organizers said the draw for this painting may be the last opportunity in this area to obtain a Bateman original, as Mr. and Mrs. Bateman and their family are planning to leave their Halton Hills home early in 1985 and move to British Columbia.

It is impossible to purchase a Bateman original at art galleries today.
