

Stanley and Elizabeth Adamiak, of rural Rockwood and Susan Simpson of Milton received the OPP Bravery Award Wednesday morning in Burlington. The award was given for an incident almost two years ago in which the trio helped remove four unconscious people from a burning car following a car crash on Highway 401.

Obituary Harold McMillan

Funeral service was held February 28 for John Harold McMillan, a well known RR 4 Rockwood farmer.

Mr. McMillan died February 25 in the Bonnie Brae Nursing Home, Fergus, where he had lived for six years.

Born May 23, 1894 in Erin Township, he was the son of

Alexander McMillan and Loretta Harris. On December 22, 1920 he married Ella McCutcheon, who died in January, 1963. Mr. McMillan lived all his life on the Erin / Eramosa Townline and farmed Angus cattle and other livestock until he was 80-years-old. He served as elder at Knox Presbyterian Church, Osprings and was also on the board of managers.

Left to mourn his loss are son Ross McMillan, and daughter Margaret (Mrs. George Fletcher), both of RR 4 Rockwood. He was predeceased by his wife, brother Wilfred and sister Annie (Mrs. Art Clow).

Funeral service was held at Shoemaker Funeral Home.
