Last Thursday and Friday the Acton Curling Club was the scene of the OFSAA curling championships. High school teams from 18 centres competed in the three-day event at both the Acton Curling Club and the Milton Curting Club.

Soccer starting soon

A sure sign of spring could be seen last Saturday as over 200 boys and girls signed up for this season's soccer action at the Acton arena.

President of the Acton Soccer Club, Malcom James, said he is looking forward to a very successful season this year and by the time the first league games start he expects there will be over 300 children registered to play.

"A registration fee of $35 per child, $60 for two children $65 for three or more children is required," continued James.

An indoor soccer clinic will start March 31 at McKenzie-Smith School for pre-season training, James said and the regular season

John Toebes drew the lucky number at this week's hockey lottery draw. The winner of $1,000 prize was H. Blagrove from Scar-will start as soon as the weather permits, probably in May.

"The Soccer Club will also have a new playing field," said James. The town has promised to set up goal posts and get a field into shape across from Lakeview Villa on Elizabeth Dr.

There will be seven boys' leagues, seven girls' leagues and two women's leagues this year, sald James. The executive hasn't decided on any tournaments this year, but once the season gets underway there will likely be one or two events scheduled for this summer added

This year's soccer executive consists of Malcolm James, president, Arthur Finley, first-vice president; Elizabeth Wegman, secretary; Wendy Priestman, treasurer; Christine Frey, equipment manager; and Shella Martin, public relations.

Atoms ousted

The Nellis Construction Major Atoms were eliminated from the Hub League playoffs last week when Elora managed a 4-0 win, in game five of the series.

The Atoms managed a 4-3 victory at home March 20 and then, back in Elora, they were trounced 4-0.

Wayne Bousfield led the Acton attack in game four of the series and John McLean and Jason Piper recorded singles. Piper, Derek Martin, Jamie Galway, Denis Hosdil, David Thorpe received the Ernle Marks memorial trophy from Ernie Mark's grandson, David Relpert, in the house league day of champions last Saturday.

Cougars' team captain Tim Oakley accepts the Bantam house league championship trophy from Shirley Scott.

Keep garlic

To keep garlic fresh, first peel the cloves then place in a small container filled with cooking oil, says Monica Beaumont, a food and nutrition specialist with the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food's rural organizations and services Cover branch. and refrigerate. The garlic will not only stay fresh but will also flavor the oil. The oil can be used for cooking or salad

Now is the Time to Make Your Landscape Plans

Dave has been busy planning the greenhouse renovations. He's done a great job and now is busy sharpening pencilis, waiting to do your LANDSCAPE PLAN. If you've been putting it off, give him a call and set up an appointment. He has lots of great new ideas and concepts to help you plan your yard professionally.

What's New at Meadowlands

June has been busy with DORMANT OIL & LIME SULPHUR SPRAY. She tells me this is the time to spray not only your fruit trees but also your shrubs. Ask her about it when you're in. We have a good supply.

She also hinted that I should watch for an "early bird" fertilizer sale coming up very soon!

Dave and I have been working on our 1984 CATALOGUE. We have a new format this year which I hope will be very helpful in choosing your nursery
