Bottle drive raises $223

by Barbara Funk

The Eramosa Rockwood Fire Department spent a good part at Sunday (April 15) fighting a stubborn fire at Eramosa Motors on Highway 7. To date, the cause of the fire is unknown.

ful bottle drive on Saturday April 14. The bottles returned a profit of $223. The cash register tapes have not been tabulated as yet, but there was "plenty" collected. The three groups, their leaders and the parent committee wish to thank everyone for their donations.

The Sunday (April 8) before last the department was kept busy responding to three grass fires in various parts of the township. Fire Chief Carl Meadows would like to remind everyone that lighting grass fires is now illegal and charges can be laid.

The Lions' monthly dance is on Saturday April 28 at Rockinosa Centre. This month the Lions will be sharing the profits from this dance with the Rockwood Scouts, Cubs and Beavers. Tickets can be obtained from Gail Ritchie at 856-4228 or Jim Patterson at 856-4084. The tickets are $10 a couple and a midnight buffet is served. The music is to be by Nickeladeon, a D.J.

According to Jim Patterson, president of the Parent Committee of the Scouts, Cubs and Beavers, the groups had a very success-
