Leathertown Men's Soccer Club members are busy with indoor soccer practices at McKenzie-Smith School in preparation for the upcoming season.

Leathertown men based in Georgetown this year

Unlike last year the Acton Leathertown Men's Soccer team will have a home base this season.

Last year the Leathertown team played all but one of their games on the road, but this season the local team will roost in Georgetown according to the Leathertown coach Brian Saxon.

The team has been in indoor practices for the past few months at the McKenzie-Smith gym on Sundays and according to Saxon the boys are getting back into good physical condition and they are getting the feel of the ball again.

Last year the Leathertown team ranked fourth in an eight team league, but this season should see the local squad place in the top of their division, said Saxon.

The team has almost been picked and according to Saxon they're just waiting for a couple more players to register. There are 20 players per team allowed.

"The team is very young," noted Saxon, "with most of the players being in their late teens and early 20s, but with only three new players the majority of the team has had at least a year of experience in the Lakeshore Industrial League."

"It's a pretty high class of soccer," remarked Saxon, "and there should be a good number of tournaments this year."

There might even be some television coverage of the games in Mississauga, added Saxon.

The Leathertown men will be opening their season May 10 as they vie for the Good-year Cup. The Leathertown men's sponsors this year are Jack Tanner's Table, The Hide House, J and T Sports and Heady's.
