Town honors achievements at Recognition night

The Town of Halton Hills honored outstanding achievements in Sports and Culture at the Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre on Thursday evening honoring some 150 area residents for their 1983 endeavors.

Senator William Kelly, a Georgetown native, was the guest speaker for the evening and took the opportunity to express his feelings on sport and to offer his congratulations to all the recipients.

"Bringing athletes like this together is great," commented the senator. He added that while some didn't believe in his philosophy, "he was a strong believer." It's important not to lose that winning itch," stated Kelly, "they say 'winning isn't important—don't believe it—winning is the ultimate."

Among those receiving the 1983 Honors and Recognition medallions were several groups or teams. The Hornby Bantam girls' softball team was recognized for their Ontario Rural Softball Association championship as was the Acton Junior Fastball squad for capturing the Ontario Junior 'C' title. Members of the Hornby team included: Michelle May, Janice Riebot, Jane Christiansen, Denis Ralph, Pauline Lemdvay, Kathleen Lemdvay, Jenny Roberts, Halle Van Wart, Kim Hamilton, Nancy Saliba, Annette Featherstone, Laurie Williams, Murray Van Wart (Coach), Diane Van Wart (Coach) Roger McHugh (Coach).

The Acton Junior Fastball team was made up of Tim Baker, Don Casselman, Mark Duval, Rusty Elliott, Rick Greenly, Gord McArthur, Dave Quinn, Glen Scott, Dick Spear, Rob Vermeulen, Dave Wilson, Kelly McArthur, Tim Evans, Roy Spear, Darryl Greenly (Coach), Steve Marshall (Manager).

Georgetown High School had two championship squads with their Swim team leading the way for '83 with an Ontario High School championship. Members of the team honored: Jenni Lusby, Sheila MacDonald, Sue Masson, Erin McIntyre, Debbie Newman, Andrea Norgate, Jim Teetzel, Liz Ramsay, Cheryl Thompson, Christian Book, Mark Bray, Craig Carlisle, Pete Carson, Jeff Buykes, Len Fisher, Stephen MacLeod, Malcolm MacLeod, Jim Millington, John Millington, Dan Stewart, Joe Bray—Asst. Coach, Karen Pepper, Ana Piqueras, Don Elson, Glen Farrow, Rick Walteson, Tom Adams, Coach.

Karen Pepper, Cheryl Thompson and Malcolm MacLeod were also honored for their individual efforts.

The Rebel Midgets girls' and boys' cross country squads were also the best in the province under coaches Karen Cosgrove and Donna Metcalfe. The boys honored were Greg McKenzie, Darren Boudreau, Jeff Amato, Mark Lamb and Terry Dixon while Alison Irvine, Amy Powers, Traci McFarlane, Kim Hale and Tammy Green made up the girls' team.

Acton runner Doreen Uranick was honored for her individual cross country efforts but was not in attendance for the awards evening.

The Georgetown Atom Girls cross country squad of Tara Bouskill, Tara Robinson, Sheila Huffman and Nancy Cocks were also among the recipients for their accomplishments at the Ontario championships.

Other track and field recipients included Tara Burroughs, Michael Cosgrove and Jim Manning.

Lacrosse players were big winners at this year's awards evening with two Acton Juniors and 12 Georgetown residents honored. Acton's Steve Tallifer and Rob Porte helped Orangeville to an Ontario Junior 'C' crown while Mike Travers, Blaine McCauley, Theresa Finn, Trevor Knight, along with coaches John, Irene and Bridget McCauley helped the Brampton tykes to an Ontario crown. The Brampton Pee-wees claimed a Canadian title with coaches Mike O'Brien and John McCauley leading locals Jason Knight, Rod Pasma, Shannon Finn, and Wes McCauley and their Brampton teammates to the title.

Two Georgetown bowling teams picked up provincial honors in '83. The Georgetown High School girls team of Julie McCorry, Jane Hicks, Roberta Burke, Tracie Peggie, Teresa Maslach, Kelly McCorry and coach Wendy Chaplin were honored for their Ontario title as was the Georgetown YBC junior girls. Maslach and Peggie were also on that squad with Trina Bassett, Denise Alton and Cheri McElroy and coach Andy Parent.

Three wrestlers were honored for their abilities. Acton's Steve Sheppard and Georgetown's Bret Robinson and Terry Dixon were on hand to receive awards.

Individual award winners included Acton's Bill Bennett (10 Pin Bowling), Stewarttown teacher Jim Ridley (baseball) Silvercreek's Jon Cornwell (motorcycle racing), Limehouse's Sara Aggiss (gymnastics) and Georgetown residents Gall Eastwood (gymnastics), Darren Kemp (figure skating), Kim Harnois (swimming), Chris Somera (bowling), Pam MacGillivray (powerlifting) and Mike Pearson (rifle competition).

In the cultural field, Globe Production members Linda Roe and Terry Champ were honored for their contribution to Globe Production, Oklahoma. For their efforts they also received Thea Awards.

The Georgetown Rug Hooking Guild were honored for their outstanding service and presented the Town with the first of two wall hangings.

The Stewarttown Public School choir earned the award for their achievements in 1983 including a fine performance at the Kiwanis Music Festival. The choir wound up the evening by singing the national anthem.

Showing off the medallions they picked up at the Halton Hills Awards and Recognition on Thursday evening are wrestlers Terry Dixon, Steve Sheppard and Bret Robinson. They were three of over 100 that received awards for outstanding achievements in 1983.

Acton councillor Rick Bonnette was on hand at the awards evening honoring athletes. Here he presents Georgetown swimmer Kim Harnois with her certificate and medallion for her 1983 achievements.

Limehouse motorcyclist Jon Cornwell received his Award from Halton Hills Mayor Russ Miller at Thursday's Awards Night.
