Knights of Columbus head up Arthritis drive

The Acton Knights of Columbus are heavily involved in helping The Arthritis Society raise $14,500 in Halton Hills this year.

Knights Bruce Lampkin and Dr. William Wright from here attended the recent annual region meeting of the Arthritis Society. The residential campaign for Acton has been set for the week of September 10.

Anyone wishing to volunteer and help with the drive is asked to call Dr. Wright at 853-3110.

At a recent meeting with Maurice Wallis, the Arthritis Society's director of field services, Paul Slipper, Grand Knight; Lampkin, Deputy Grand Knight; and Dr. Wright, recorder; agreed the local Knights will be responsible for the Acton campaign.

by Mabel Barkman

There is nothing more exciting than seeing creatures in the wild. Every year when we take a little trip up north, I keep hoping I will see a moose or a bear. Closer to home one gets used to the rabbits, ground-hogs and raccoons.

But the other morning on our way to have a breakfast with our daughter, we saw four beautiful deer in a small clearing close to a wooded area. We stopped the car and watched them for a few minutes. They were standing so very still, like statues that one sees on the lawn. One, who apparently had not seen us, moved into the thicket and we saw his lovely white tail. We moved on before they did and when we returned a few hours later, they were nowhere to be seen. But the memory of the deer will remain with us for some time.
