Offer schools for licensed events

Five Halton Hills schools are among the 14 designated by the Halton Board of Education as being available for public functions where alcoholic beverages are served.

The designations are part of recent revisions to board policy governing the rental of school facilities. Also under consideration is the board's right to cancel without notice any non-school event that interferes with school activities.

80 Wanted to Rent
APARTMENT wanted in Georgetown or surrounding area for young professional. One bedroom furnished or unfurnished. Available for mid-May occupancy. Please call 877-0161 Personnel Department.
FROM MAY 1 to September 1, share house or room with kitchen use or rent small apartment. City or country, Georgetown or Terra Cotta area. Quiet, well-mannered person. Call Jeanne collect at (519) 822-0893 or (416) 634-9592.

The revised policy statement, with a new schedule of standardized rental rates still to come, was presented to the board Thursday night for preliminary study.
Georgetown and Acton high schools as well as Pineview, Speyside and Limehouse schools are the local facilities designated as available for licensed activities. The policy dictates that alcohol cannot be distributed during any school function or when regular day school students are still present. Only local community groups can take advantage of the new proposal.

The board's community schools administration committee, headed by trustee Cam Jackson, selected the 14 "designated school" based on accessibility for the greatest number of users, geographical location and proper flooring. The board will review its list in 1986, adding or deleting schools according to the way they've been used for such functions.
Halton Hills trustee Arlene Bruce expressed concern over a policy giving the board the right to cancel conflicting non-school events without notice.

Limehouse
W.I. plans Canada Day
The annual meeting of Limehouse Women's Institute began with a delicious pot luck luncheon. Business was conducted by Elaine Hannah.
A vote of thanks was tendered to John Benton for his work in removing snow from the hall parking lot during the winter.
Ada Roughley had attended a Scout breakfast meeting, where she was the recipient of a certificate of appreciation to Limehouse Institute for sponsoring the scouts in our area.
A report of the RSVP meeting in Milton was presented by Jean Anderson. The financial report showed that the season's parties had added $273 to funds.
A discussion on the plans for the Canada Day Bicentennial celebrations showed much enthusiasm for the event, slated for June 30 and July 1. A grant from the region has been received to be used to promote the program, which is hoped to include: demonstrations of craftmaking, pioneer article displays, picnic supper, Saturday night dance, a ball game, an open air church service and more. Watch for posters.
The election of officers resulted in the 1984-85 executive being: Past Pres. Elaine Hannah, President Glenda Benton, 1st Vice President Pearl Brown, 2nd Vice President Ada Roughley, Sec.-Treas. Jean Kirkwood, PRO Mary Booth, District Director Jean Anderson, and Auditors Blanche Brigham and Doris Brown.

Obituary
Arthur Powley
A prominent and active Jehovah Witness minister, Arthur Powley of Acton died April 8 following a lengthy illness.
Mr. Powley was born in Sault Ste. Marie, the son of George and Clara Powley, one of nine children. He was baptized in 1940 and has been active in his faith ever since.
On October 30, 1941, he married his wife Rose in Sudbury. The couple lived in Georgetown before moving to Acton two years ago.
For the past 34 years, Mr. Powley has been a full-time minister in a voluntary capacity for the Jehovah Witness. He has travelled throughout Canada for the past 30 years as a district and circuit minister.
Kenneth Little officiated at the funeral April 11 at Kingdom Hall, Georgetown. A memorial service was held in Georgetown, and interment was at Sault Ste. Marie.
Left to mourn his loss are his wife Rose, and a brother Marvin from Red Lake, Ontario. He was predeceased by his parents, brothers Roy, of Timmins, Harold, Harvey and George of Sault Ste. Marie and sisters Pearl Booth, Florence MacDonald and Edith Dunn, all of Sault Ste. Marie.
