

Cleckner-Marchment wed in Toronto

Nancy Kathryn Marchment, daughter of Leo and Charlotte Marchment, 65 Roseford Terrace, and Craig McKinley Cleckner, Toronto, were married in Faith Cathedral, Toronto March 30.

The groom is the son of Harry and June Cleckner, Toronto.

Doctor McVity was the officiating minister at the double ring ceremony and Mr. Arruda was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, Nancy wore a calf length designer's dress. The hat had three veils made of silk and nylon with embossed rose petals with inserts of pearls. She carried red roses.

Margarita Arruda of Toronto was bridesmaid, wearing a pinkish mauve silk dress with beige accessories. She carried pink and white roses.

Damon Cleckner, the groom's brother was best man.

Following the Toronto ceremony, guests from Acton, Toronto, Guelph, Aurora and Newmarket returned to the bride's parents

Acton home for the reception. Guests admired a cake made by Gail Foster of Acton. The bride's mother wore a beige lace dress and the groom's mother was dressed in pink.

Special honor was given to Irene Marchment who had, two days before the wedding, returned from the hospital. Nancy visited her grandmother before the wedding, presenting her with a corsage and returned after the ceremony with her new husband.

Nancy went to school in Acton and was a regular singer for two years on the local cable 4 program Christ Cares for His Children.

Prior to her marriage, the bride-elect was guest of honor at a miscellaneous show at the home of Mrs. Shirley Snyder, the bride's aunt, with relatives of both Nancy and Craig attending. A shower is also to be held in the future by Mrs. Arruda of Toronto with friends in Toronto attending.

The newlyweds are living in Toronto.

Nancy Marchment and Craig Cleckner were married in Toronto March 30.

Greenock WI

Name new officers

The annual meeting of Greenock Women's Institute was held April 10 at the home of Mrs. E. McGeragle, with 14 members attending. Mrs. W. Aitken read two spring poems after the opening of the meeting.

Mrs. E. McGeragle gave meditations and she read about the famous painting of "The Last Supper" by Leonardo da Vinci. Roll call was payment of fees and Mrs. J. Veerman gave current events. Each committee gave their reports of the year and our president, Mrs. W. Aitken, thanked all for their co-operation during her term.

We then had the installation of officers compiled by the nominating committee for 1984-85:

Past President Mrs. W. Aitken; President Mrs. R. McKeown; First Vice-President Mrs. E. McGeragle; Second Vice-President Mrs. A. Gates; Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. R. Sinclair; Assistant Secretary Treasurer Mrs. G. Wallace; Branch Directors: Mrs. E. Patterson, Mrs. C. Allen, Mrs. G. Leslie; P.R.O. Mrs. D. Milton; District Director Mrs. C. Aitken; Alternate Director Mrs. W. Aitken; Standing Convenerhips—cards, fruit and flowers, Miss E. Pearen, Mrs. G. Jackson, Mrs. E. Johnston.

Group to join peace parade

Several carloads of Halton Hills residents are expected to join thousands of Torontonians in this Saturday's Peace Parade from Queen's Park.

At the close of the meeting our new president, Mrs. R. McKeown took the chair for a short talk.

Citizens' Band spring concert this Sunday

Musical Potpourri is the theme of this Sunday's annual Acton Citizens' Band spring concert.

There will be about 45 band members performing in the show which starts at 8 p.m. at McKenzie-Smith School.

Director George Elliott noted for this concert they put all sorts of music together and "came up with stew."

The featured performer will be Judy Shepherd a Guelph French Horn player who will perform two movements from Mozart's Horn Concerto.

As always the band will play some marches, two for this show, El Capitan by John Phillips Sousa and Dambusters by Coates.

Other pieces for the concert will include themes from French ballet and the Jamaican Folk Suite. Leroy Anderson's The Syncopated Clock and Mozart's Overture to the Impresario will also be played.

Resuscitator

Acton firefighters answered two resuscitator calls in the past week.

The first was Thursday at 4.45 p.m. at 93 Mill St. and the second was Sunday at 4.49 p.m. at 17 Elizabeth Dr.
