Congregation enjoys Easter Sunday breakfast

by Barb Crawford
A special church service was held on Good Friday with both Rev. Jenkins and Mr. Craig Rumble officiating.
A large number of the congregation enjoyed a delicious breakfast prepared by the men of the church prior to the service on Sunday. Rev. Jenkins delivered the Easter message and special Easter music was supplied by an orchestra which was comprised of Ellen Burkhard-violin, John Duenk-trumpet, Keith Barber-cello, Vern Denny-mandolin, and Marie Anderson our organist. The senior choir sang Were You There with solos by Mr. E. Jenkins Sr. and Jack Denny. Mr. and Mrs. Walsma and daughter Lisa, sang Christ Arose; Jack Denny sang The Holy City and the Junior choir, directed by Mrs. Joanne Turner sang On This Day.
Charles and Grace Perry celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on April 14. Their children, Linda Denny, Mary Lou Johnston and Donald Perry arranged a pleasant day by taking the immediate family to dinner at Jack Tanner's Table. This was followed by a surprise reception at Acton Meadows Golf Club where they were greeted by friends and neighbors. Their maid of honor from the Shelburne area was present as well as folks from Barrie, Brighton, Belleville, Fergus, Guelph, Iowa, Niagara Falls, Severn Bridge and Toronto. Grace's mother, Mrs. Mabel Davis, from Severn Bridge, who is 88 made the wedding cake. Neighbors and ladies of the Eastern Star catered the refreshments. On Sunday afternoon Open House was held at their home for out of town guests.

Don and Shirley Swackhamer and children spent Easter visiting Shirley's cousins May and Ted Britton in New Liskeard. En route they called in on Shirley and Del Page at Minden who are former Acton neighbors.

Ball practices underway

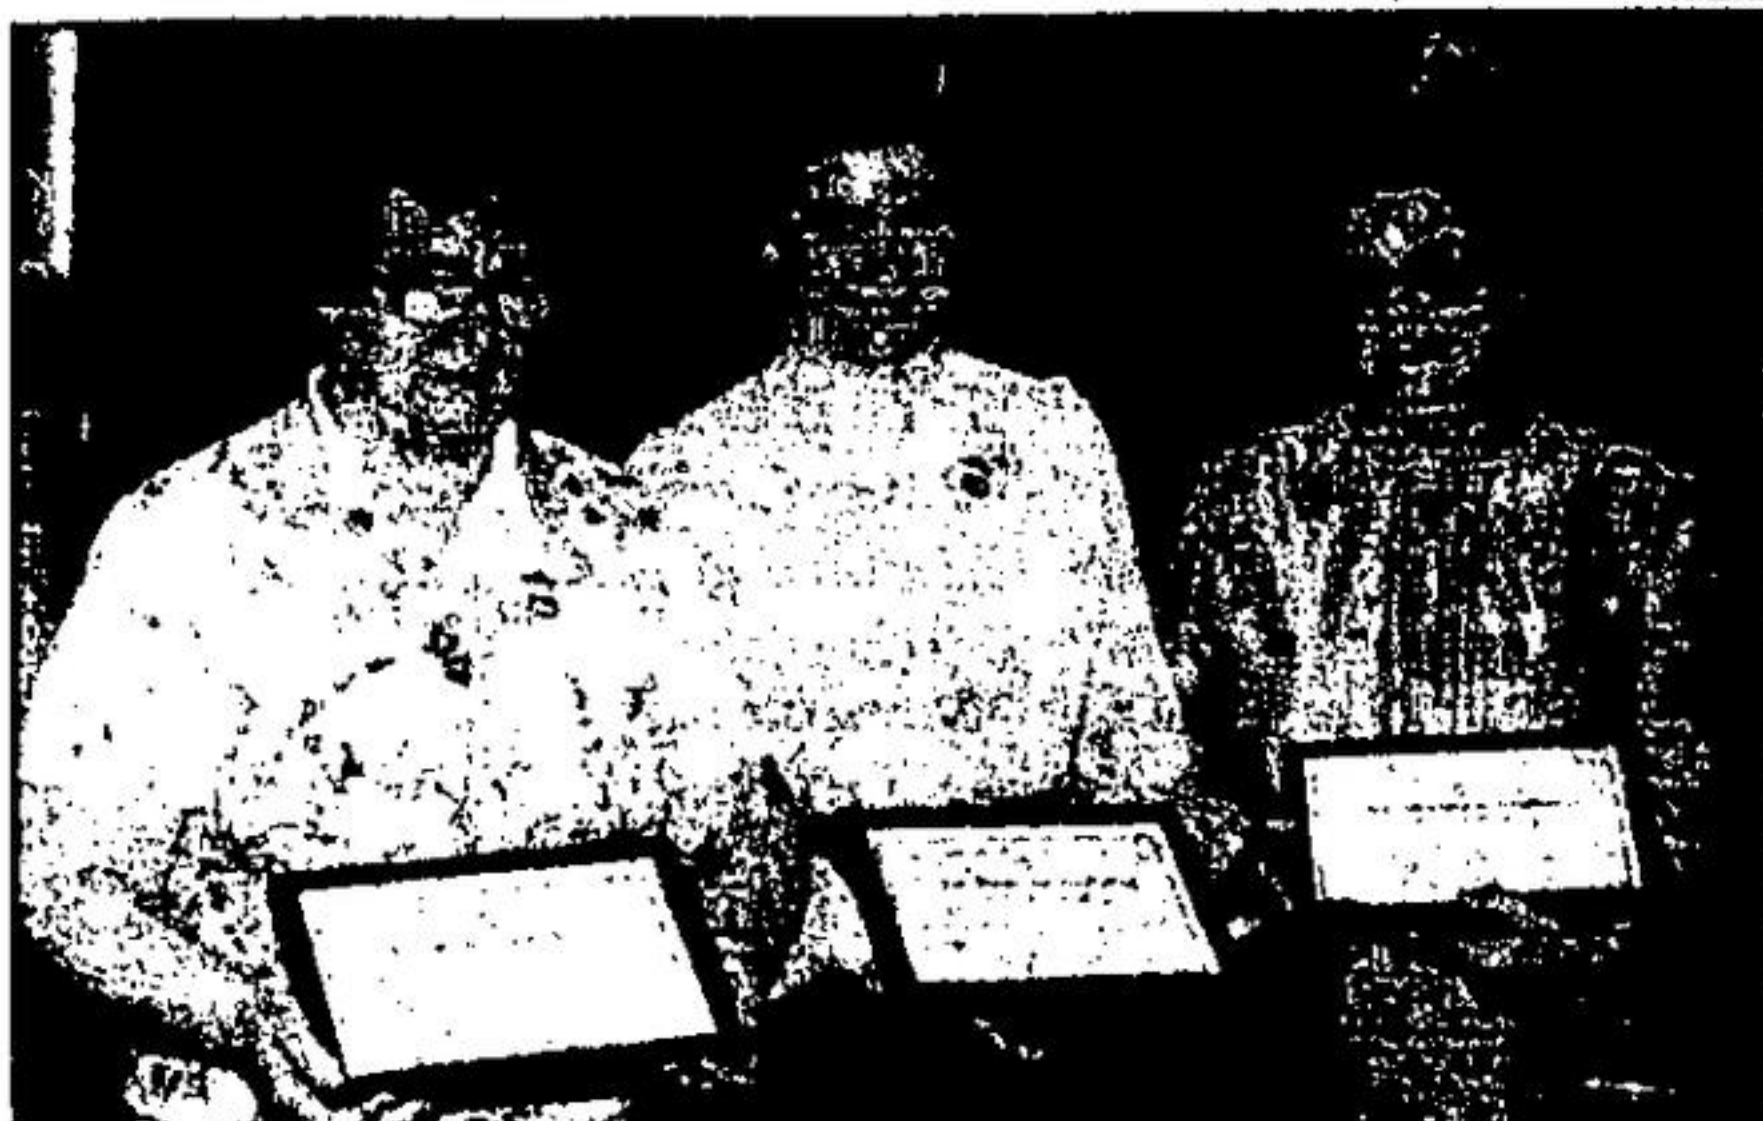

by Mrs. G. MacDougall
Get well wishes are with Mrs. Mel Tolton who has been off work with a back ailment.
The ball team has had their first practice in the park so we look forward to the shouts of "play ball," for summer entertainment.
Sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Patterson in their bereavement of Merv's mother, Mrs. William Patterson of Arthur.
Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barden were recent visitors with Ev's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Medford Harkness of Teeswater.
Mrs. Joan Ball of Shelburne was a recent visitor with her daughter and son-in-law, Sharyn and Dave Banks and Mark.

Mrs. Irene Cole was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party hosted by her husband Terry, when friends and neighbors dropped in.
Recent visitors at the MacDougall home on the occasion of Garnet's birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hamilton and Adam; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton; Irene Cole; Jean Rinehart; Mr. and Mrs. Manse Lowrie; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lowrie and Dusty; Mr. and Mrs. G. Aitken; Mrs. Bertha Aitken; Mr. and Mrs. Dean MacDougall and Dustin; Mr. and Mrs. Roger MacDougall, Tara and Troy, Eunice Lachance and Heather.

Citizen of Year nominations deadline is next Monday

This is a reminder to readers that the deadline for nominating people to be Acton's 27th Citizen of the Year is next Monday, April 30, at 12 noon.
Ballots are again published inside today's paper or sent the Chamber of Commerce selection committee a letter stating why your nominee should be selected for this prestigious award.

Ballots or letters should be sent to the Acton Chamber of Commerce, Post Office box 415.

The Dublin Women's Institute handed out several awards Thursday and some of the recipients of lifetime membership (25 years as a member) are left to right: Edith Watkins, Christina McMillan and Maisie Lasby.

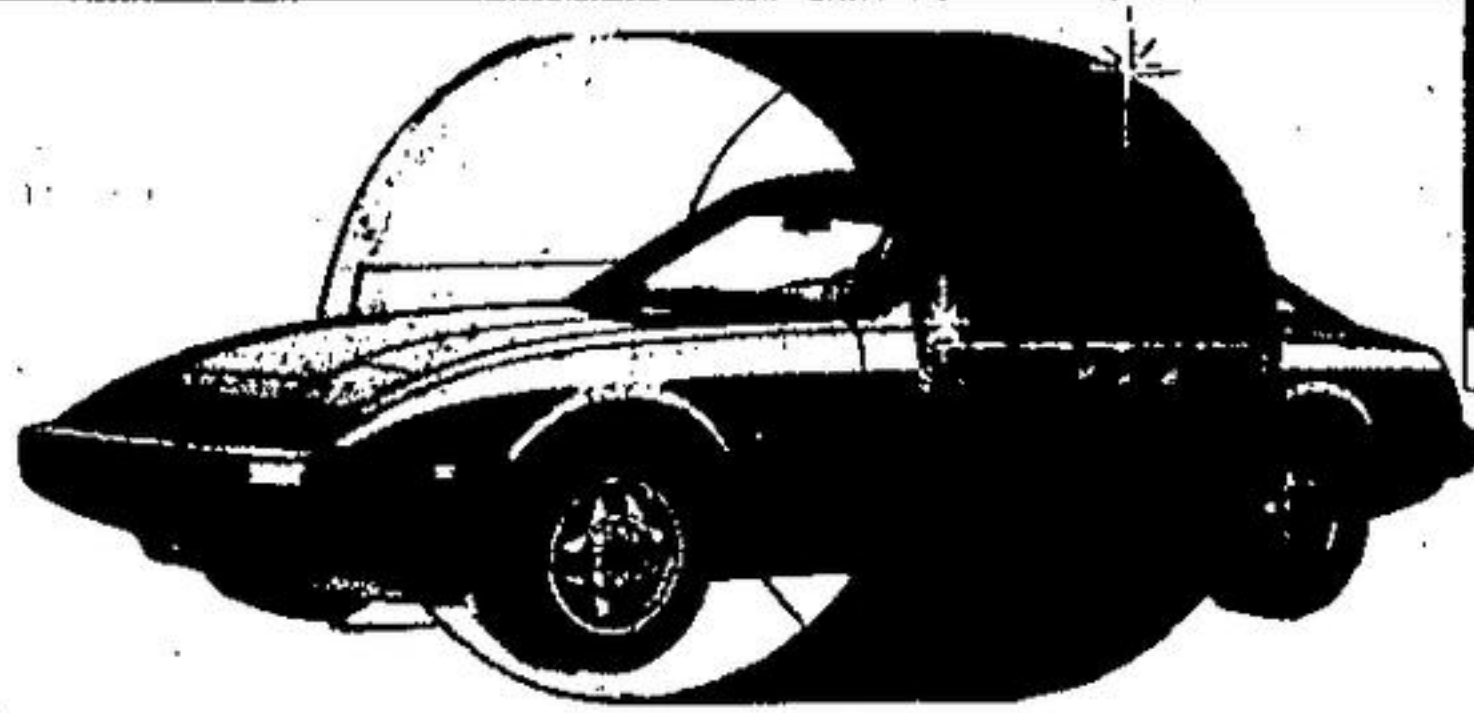

Karen Lynn McDowell, daughter of Ted and Violet McDowell, recently graduated from Conestoga College with a diploma in nursing.

Police beat

Police charged a 25-year-old Georgetown man with impaired driving after stopping him on Main St. in Acton at about 4 a.m. Sunday. He'd been spotted driving erratically.
