Y's Menettes gather here

Over 50 women from all over Ontario attended a regional Y's Menettes mini convention in Acton Saturday at the Acton Curling Club.

Entitled A Spring Bonnet Affair, many of the ladies took the theme to heart arriving in their best spring hats.

Crafts done by the Y's Menettes clubs were on display as everyone registered and enjoyed a little snack at the start of the day.

Regional director Bunny Cunningham was in charge of the morning session of business and Councillor Rick Bonnette brought greetings from Halton Hills at the luncheon. There was also entertainment.

In the afternoon the ladies toured the Hide House and then returned to the Curling Club for a craft sale and the closing of the convention.

Clergy comment

by Father Ralph Diodati

A few weeks ago in London, England, a policewoman was murdered by someone in the Libyan embassy while actually protecting that same embassy. Terrorism seems to be running rampant in the world today.

Some governments actually adopt officially a policy of terrorism under the guise of "protecting their own interests and existence." Some of these countries may actually claim to be friendly with our government.

Terrorism and acts of unmitigated violence are pure and simple evil. Our world is filled with much evil. Everywhere we look we can see suffering, death, hatred, and injustice. We see so much of these evils that often it becomes overwhelming, and we give up and simply say we do not understand why it happens.

We see in the Acts of the Apostles the church being persecuted, innocent people being killed, and the survivors being dispersed and driven from their homes and countries. Surprisingly, as a result of this terrible evil, the church is strengthened with many new converts because of the dispersion of the faithful.

Evil is wrong; everything should be done to prevent it. But when it does occur, it does no good to wring our hands and shake our heads and wonder why. We Christians must look at the situation and ask what we can do to bring about good from the evil. We must assert our moral convictions in the face of evil.
