Knox Alert Evening Group

The Knox "Alert" Evening Group met in the Mary Ellen Anderson Room. Vera Inglis, program convener, opened the meeting with the Call to Worship, following the Easter program in the Glad Tidings. The hymn "Christ the Lord is Risen Today" was sung, followed by the scripture reading in three portions by Vera, Ruth Marshall and Lil McLennan.

Vera took the first reading and the hymn "Day of Resurrection" followed. Ruth took the second reading and Lil took the third. Gladys Davidson sang a solo "He Lives" and Ruth read a poem by Helen Steiner Rice, "Each Spring God Renews His Promise", followed by a reading by Vera "This Is True." The hymn, "Jesus Stand Among Us" and a prayer by Vera, Ruth and Lil closed the program.

The president took charge of the business calling for the secretary's and treasurer's reports, which were read and adopted. Kathleen Dodds thanked the group for cards and flowers. Vera moved that we make our donation to the Knox College Restoration Fund $50, seconded by Gladys. The secretary is to write a thank you note to the Daughters of Knox, thanking them for their assistance, financially and otherwise, on the night Mr. R.S. Hart showed his slides on Israel and other Holy places.

Captains for the Copper Contest will be Vera and Ruby Banks, and sides were chosen. Lil gave the Lamp Report and it was discussed where and how the "In Memoriam" certificates and plaque should be hung. The meeting was brought to a close with the Mizpah Benediction. During the meeting we were pleased to welcome Rev. Craig Cribar and we were able to get better acquainted with him.

Hit while stopped

Damage was set at $2,000 to a car driven by a 19-year-old RR 2 Acton man, Terry Cianfarani, in a collision Thursday afternoon in Georgetown. The man had stopped his car on Mountainview Rd. North, waiting to turn onto Armstrong Ave. when his car was struck by another vehicle driven by a Georgetown woman. About $100 damage was done to the latter vehicle.
