Acton flautist plans concert

Acton's Susan McNally will be featured in a flute recital June 3 at the Acton Baptist Church. Music director for the church, McNally will step outside her usual secular limits to present an hour-and-a-half program of Baroque and popular music starting at 3:30 p.m. that day. Previously heard in concert with the Georgetown Choral Society, McNally will be accompanied June 3 by Hamilton pianist Nancy Munger.

Cantante Singers concert May 26

Two decades of pop music, from the Beatles to "Flashdance", will be among the music presented by Georgetown's Cantante Singers in their spring concert "Memories" May 26. Tickets are already on sale for the 8 p.m. performance at the Library-Cultural Centre by the popular all-girl choir directed by Dale Wood. As a special treat, past members of the group have been invited to attend the concert and might just be coaxed onstage, according to Wood, for a song or two, in keeping with the evening's theme. Solos by three of the 26 current members are planned. Jane Timleck, Diana Colic, and Joanna Delroy will take centre stage at different times during the concert. Tickets cost $4.50 for adults, $3 for students and senior citizens, and are available from Wood (877-1638), Jane Timleck (877-6198) or at the door.
