Shared courage, Frank Papillon dies

Frank Papillon shared his courage with others and passed away peacefully at his home in Acton on March 25, 1984 in his 63rd year.

Born in Bracebridge, Ontario, on April 7, 1921, Frank came to Acton when he was five. He attended Robert Little School and Acton High School.

He was employed by Beardmore and Co. as a buffer until 1941 when he entered the armed services and was assigned to the Canadian Dental Corps. He served overseas where he attained the rank of sergeant before being discharged in 1945. Before going overseas he married the former Dorothy Mellor of Acton on June 24, 1944.

On his return to Acton after the war he resumed employment with Beardmore and became foreman of the Leather Specialty Dept. where he worked for 36 years.

He is sadly missed by his wife Dorothy and his children Judith O'Donoghue of Mississauga, Terri Slade of Thornhill, Janice Kovacs of Newmarket, Margaret Abram of Brampton and Francis Jr. at home, and ten grandchildren. Also, his brothers Theo, Archie, Peter and sisters Mrs. Elimere White, Mary Papillon of Acton and Mrs. Jean Clark of Brantford.

He was a member of St. Joseph's Parish where a funeral mass was held on March 27. A guard of honour was formed outside the church by the Beardmore management staff. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

33 make their First Communion

Thirty-three young people made their first Holy Communion in the auditorium of St. Joseph's School during a special mass last Sunday afternoon.

First Communion is usually reserved for the parish church but renovations there made it impossible so it was held in the school auditorium, which was crowded for mass celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Ralph Diodati. The children sang during the mass assisted by other students from St. Joseph's school.

A welcome was extended to all the parents, relatives and friends who attended by Shannon Merritt, the reading and responsorial psalm were read by Carolyn Montgomery and Hilda Hinojosa. The prayers of petition were read by Steven Beaton, Stacia Cockburn, Jeff Moreland, Theresa McGeragle, Maureen Thomson and Cathy Pucz.

The offertory prayers were said by Mark Goodwin, Shannon Thompson, Cynthia Saad and Tony Costa.

The final prayer and closing were offered by Kevin Paisley and Steven Bottero.

The children making their first communion were under the direction of Grade 2 teacher Carol Caverley.

The first communicants were: Sheri Albert, Steven Beaton, Marc Bosboom, Steven Bottero, Lee Chung, Jennifer Clark, Stacia Cockburn, Allison Coe, Tony Costa, Josh Davies, Michael Forbes, Mark Goodwin, Amanda Handy, Tara Haslam, Kristy Hickey, Hilda Hinojosa, Bryce Marshall, Theresa McGeragle, Shannon Merritt, Carolyn Montgomery, Sean Mosher, Amy Newman, Michael O'Meara, Kevin Paisley, Cathy Pucz, Neil Roque, Cynthia Saad, Annaka Sharpe, Shannon Thompson, Maureen Thomson, Laura Wedemire, Billy Whalen, Jeffrey Moreland.

St. Joseph's Parish hopes the renovations to the church will be done for the Sacrament of Confirmation which will be administered by the recently appointed Bishop of the Hamilton Diocese, Anthony Tonnas on Friday, June 1.
