were placed in the church by the following: in the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Swackhamer from the families; in memory of parents Mr. and Mrs. Elton Cole, brother Jack and sister-in-law Beatrice from Doug and Lena Mason and also a plant in memory of wife, mother and grandmother from the Walter Cole family.

A lovely wooden plant stand was dedicated to the church in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Thompson from their families.

As well as the two above mentioned ministers, Rev. F. Walter Fosbury and Rev. Jim McFalled, former ministers were also present.

Special music for the occasion included the orchestra comprised of John Duenk—trumpet, Keith Barber—cello and Vern

Denny—mandolin, accompanied by church organist Mrs. Marie Anderson. Mr. Emyns Jenkins Sr. sang "Into My Hands" and the choir directed by Mrs. Joanne Turner sang "Lord Jesus Be Near Me and Promised Land."

Following the morning service a light lunch was served to the congregation.

The evening service was also well attended when Rev. Robt. Hyde delivered his sermon, "The Friendly Four." Henry Burt, George Root, Don and Ken Graham from Hillsburg, accompanied by Ruth Graham Oliver, rendered several songs which were enjoyed by the congregation. A coffee hour and social time followed.

The annual Sunday school picnic will be held on Sunday, June 3. Worship is at 10 a.m. and the bus will leave for Kelso Park at 10:30 a.m.

Osprige

Brownies move to Guides

by Doris Fines
Eight Osprige Brownies galloped up to Guides on Tuesday evening, as they rode their horses through the ring to be welcomed by the Guide leader Helen Dubeau and the Guides. The eight girls to receive their Golden Hand and Wings were: Wendy Barnstaple, Jennifer Lieder, Michele Gibson, Shannon Argudin, Terra McDonald, Shelley Ridley, Roseanne Vlietstra and Terri-Anne Walsma.

Alyssa Trautman and Hilary Walker received the Golden Bar, and Stephanie Bajona, Teresa Holden, Laina McClory, Terry Lynn Scott and Jennie Vlietstra were presented with their Golden Ladder.

With the help of Brown Owl Wil Argudin, Margaret Barnstaple, Margaret Smits and Gail Ridley, they sang their Brownie songs and played games. They then served coffee, cake and cookies to their parents and other guests.

Shower

Carry Purcell of Don Mills hosted a bridal shower on Sunday afternoon, at the home of Susan Toscan in Guelph, for Heather Black, a bride-to-be of next month. Heather's mother Mrs. Margaret Black, sister Louise, sister-in-law Pat, and Shelley Manes attended the shower.

Congratulations to Mark Jackson who graduated May 11, in business accounting, from Mohawk College, Hamilton.

Add to service

The Bell Ringers from The Stone Church added greatly to the church service of Knox Presbyterian, as their beautiful chimes rang out in several selections before, during, and after the service. Elizabeth Ferrer, organist of The Stone Church, and director of the Bell Ringers, accompanied them on the organ.

Upcoming dates to keep in mind for Knox Presbyterian Church, are—June 10 is the outdoor service and picnic, June 17 will be communion Sunday, and June 24 is Anniversary Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Black accompanied her daughter and son-in-law Susan and Peter Toscan of Guelph, to the wedding of her niece Shirley Harrison on Saturday. The wedding took place in Toronto on Weston Road, and the reception was at the Ramada Inn in Mississauga.

4-H guests

The girls of Mimosa 1 and Mimosa 2 4-H clubs were guests of the Mimosa Women's Institute, at their May meeting at Mimosa United Church. Shirley Fletcher gave her speech about the Toronto Exhibition, and repeated a poem. Mimosa 1 set up an exhibit—Tools of the Trade, which was commented on by Christina Goring, and Mimosa 2 showed an exhibit on The Production of Maple Syrup, and also presented a skit on Tricks of the Trade and Helpful Hints for Quilters. The four girls taking part were Lynn Rowan, Lynn Cole, Becky Heyden and Christine Thompson. The Women's Institute presented gifts to Lisa Swackhamer and Vicky Cargill for completing six clubs.

Mrs. Vernon Stewart held a surprise baby shower at her home for wee Josiah James, son of Linda and Jimmy Stewart, to give him a helping hand as he begins his travel along the road of life.
