Halton Scouts receive awards at Blue Springs

by Jean Layman
Scouts Canada held an impressive ceremony Sunday evening May 27 for 40 recipients from Halton Region who were presented with Chief Scout, Queen Venturer and Duke of Edinburgh awards. Halton Region includes Burlington, Campbellville, North Halton, Milton, Oakville and Water-down.

Brian Collier of 2nd Georgetown received the Queen Venturer award, Scott Stewart of 2nd Georgetown the Chief Scout Award and Donald Campbell of 4th Georgetown the Chief Scout Award. The Duke of Edinburgh awards of a silver pin went to three Limehouse Rovers—Geoff Cannon, Lynda Ellison and Sandy Yach.

Reverend Paul Jackson, Assistant Provincial Commissioner from Oakville gave the invocation followed by the Welcome to the large gathering for the prestigious awards signed by the Governor General of Canada.

Bill McConachie, president of Burlington District assisted with the presentations, with a parent presenting the boy with the parchment. In 85 per cent of presentations, the father was also in Scout uniform making it a most impressive event. Provincial Field Executive Bob Carlaw of Blue Springs gave an explanation of the awards and thanked the leaders, parents and the boys for all of the hard work involved to achieve this honor. Mr. Carlaw organized this event.

Rover Co-ordinator Bob Gracey of Hornby gave the explanation of the Duke of Edinburgh award which is earned in three stages. Reverend Jackson expressed greetings from Provincial Commissioner Ed McCrimmon, also his congratulations to all of the recipients.

Committee explains procedure

The Committee of Adjustments, criticized by Halton Hills council for holding their discussions behind closed doors, are advising all applicants of the procedure.

The committee hears the applications in public and announces their decisions, and reasons, in public, but discuss the issues 'in camera'.

The committee now explains members signing decisions are in favor of the application while those not signing are opposed.
