Dublin W.I. meets in Guelph at Blyth home

Over 30 members journeyed to Guelph on Thursday evening to attend the monthly meeting of Dublin Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. Horace Blyth, Sunnylea Crescent. Mrs. M. Nellis assisted as co-hostess.

"Ladies, does this description fit your job?" was the amusing verse used by the President, Mrs. D. Hunter, in presiding for the opening exercises.

Roll call was interesting when pictures of the members' grand-mothers were shown, it being Tweedsmuir History night.

A good financial report of the Lunch Sale at Mrs. Marion Hunter's 8th Line, Nassagaweya, auction, held recently, was given by Mrs. E. Wilson, when she turned in proceeds from the booth.

Members were reminded of the Nassagaweya Fun Fair being held on June 16 at Brookville Public School, and several ladies volunteered to help in the Dublin Booth. Donation of $100 to the Mental Health Association and $500 to the Acton Community Services were approved.

Thirteen members of the Branch attended the Halton District Annual on May 17 at St. David's Church, Campbellville, and a splendid report was given at the meeting by Mrs. H. Besley, district director. She said there are 297 members from 12 Branches in Halton County. It was of special interest to the Branch members to see the up-coming President of the Halton District, Mrs. W. Lasby, pin the past presidents' pin on Mrs. E. Norton, who has served well in that capacity for the past two year term.

Mrs. D. Moffat, a member of the Ennottville Branch as well, gave a few highlights of the Centre Wellington District Annual held the day before and which she attended.

Mrs. John McLean, who attended the Officers Conference in Waterloo from Dublin gave a full and interesting report of the sessions held there. Six hundred Institute members attended the three day event.

Tweedsmuir History books with many local pictures, as well as family and other histories, were enjoyed by the members as they turned the pages. All feel an indebtedness to the curator, Mrs. H. Dodds, who has done a splendid work in chronicling the past in this district. Mrs. Dodds mentioned that these books had been taken to Erindale recently by Mrs. C.M. Davidson for a showing there.

To compliment the grandmothers of the Branch, Mrs. J. McLean read three poems entitled: The Modern Grandmother, An Angel with an Apron, and My Old Quilting Frames. Mrs. E. Wilson conducted a game. Three prizes were given to Mrs. W. J. McIntyre, for having the most grandchildren, also the most grandsons, and the most granddaughters; Mrs. W. Watkins for the most great grandchildren; Mrs. H. Haefner for being the youngest grandmother, and Mrs. A. Murchison for having the youngest grandchild. Mrs. Murchison was also celebrating her birthday. Complimenting all grandmothers, in the Branch, each received a plant to take home.

Lunch was served by Mrs. C. Armstrong, Miss Mildred Wilson and Mrs. E. Wilson, assisted by Mrs. Blyth.

Thanks were extended by Mrs. J. Kranendonk to the hostesses, and all who had assisted with the program and lunch.

The next meeting will be held on June 21 at the home of Mrs. M. Nellis, Blue Springs Road.

Greenock W.I.

Two members honored by Institute at tea

The May meeting of the Greenock Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. E. Johnston with 15 members attending, one newly joined. President Mrs. A. McKeown opened the meeting with poems.

The roll-call was a mystery—"What I would like if I were a shut in." It proved interesting. Mrs. G. Leslie read Meditations.

After business the past president, Mrs. W. Aitken, was presented with a gift in appreciation for her capable years in the chair. Members were shown a film (Women in Crisis) which was entertaining, comical as well as educational.

In April, Greenock W.I. held a Tweedsmuir Tea at the home of Miss A. Pearen. Mrs. E. Duffield was a guest.

Mrs. G. Wallace, the Tweedsmuir curator, gave an interesting talk on the Tweedsmuir book.

Mrs. C. Allen was presented with a life membership and Mrs. G. Wallace was presented with a certificate of merit.

Meanderings

by M.E. Barkman

A few years ago a little black and white kitten was meowing in the midst of the poison ivy. Our daughter waded in carefully and brought it out. I guess someone had just let it out of a car.

We introduced her to our cat, Pushkin, and she became a fixture, getting all her required needles. She was a very healthy cat and needed nothing except food and love. A couple of weeks ago we took a train trip out west for 12 days and our sons came every evening to look after the animals.

The second day Katusch disappeared and we have never seen her since we returned. I hope she is not on her way west to find us. Perhaps she decided it was time to have a new home.
