

Minors' bats swinging

It was home run night June 1 as a total of 14 homers were recorded flying over the fence in a match that saw J and T Sports edge Glenlea 20-16.

Bobby Andrews belted in three homeruns, Kent Stuckey and Scott Glass tallied a pair of homers each and Matthew Borg and Shelby DaPonte notched one each for Glenlea. Also crossing the plate for Glenlea were Janey McCallum, Matthew Andrews, Jeff Mooreland and Stewart Ginn.

Batting in homers for J and T were pitchers Duane Piper and Chris Cullen with two each and Cathy McSween also managed to pound the ball out of the park. Also earning runs for J and T were Lee Ann Robertson, Paul Schick, Wally Redikes and Jamie and Andrew Kinnear.

Coach Linda Gavin is surrounded by her 'Wild Ones'; the pee-wee play-off champs. Members included Rachel Haggett, Donna Patey, Ryan Duffield, Brett Petrillo and Lisa Forbes.

High averages in the Acton YBC this season were awarded to pee-wees Donna Patey and Steven Bottero, bantams Angela Dunn and David Deforest, juniors Linda Bottero and Richard Cripps and seniors Teresa Dunn and Bruce Shannon.

High double and triple shooters in the YBC this year were pee-wees Patricia Watson and Chris Wilson, bantams Christine Dunn and Sheldon Stuckless, juniors Bev Dunn and Per Fisker, and seniors Julie Heatley and Greg White. Steven White accepted for brother Greg.

Lynda Ruse and her 'Hot Shots' claimed the bantam play-off silverware. Members of the team included Tracey Haggett, Melinda Stuckless, Heather Wilcott, Michael Noseworthy, Darrin Duffield and Cindy Carter.

Senior league and play-off champs were the Bloopers. Grant Smith, Louise Reid, Julie Heatley and Christine Hoare were on hand to accept the awards. Coach Bob Heatley and Bruce Shannon were absent.

The Acton Youth Bowling Council held their annual awards night at the Acton Legion last Tuesday. Winners of the high single awards went to pee-wees Jennifer Gavin and Brett Petrillo, bantams Amanda McKinnon and Steven Sheppard, juniors Stacey Hillier and Kenny McKenzie and seniors Shelley Graham and Tom Shannon.
