

Soccer season starts with super competition

The Acton boys' soccer club kicked off their season in fine form this week with all teams playing good matches.

MINISQUIRTS
In Mini Squirt action Can Am defeated the T-Birds 3-1, Queen's Tire beat Bob's Angels 3-1, and then the Angels returned fire to down the T-Birds 6-0.

Sandy Soccocchia scored all three Can Am goals against the T-Birds and the lone T-Bird goal came from Simon Fraser.

Patrick McMahon notched a pair of goals for Queen's Tire and Roy Stuckless recorded a single. Douglas Frehs scored the only Angels' goal.

Frehs had a hat trick for the T-Birds leading them to a win over Bob's Angels. Andrew Preistman tallied two goals in the effort. Ryan Frueter also scored for the T-Birds.

SQUIRTS
Jan Del came away with one tie and one win in the Squirt boys' division as they matched Pineview 1-1 and edged Glasvan 4-3.

Brad Cripps recorded the lone Jan Del goal to tie Pineview and Jason Sands managed the lone Pineview goal.

Cripps also led the Jan Del offense against Glasvan as he kicked two goals and Trevor Splinter added a pair of goals for the win.

Aglam Forrest scored twice for Glasvan while Steve Bottero added a single.

ATOMS
In Atom action Desmond's pounded Holland Shop 4-1, Gordon Dawe blanked Pineview 6-0 and Subo doubled Holland Shop 4-2.

Kevin Pettipher and Jason Pun tallied two goals each to lead Desmond's to a win and the Holland shop goal was recorded by Sheldon Stuckless.

Derrick Robson and Bill

Gilles notched two goals each for Gordon Dawe while Dean Wegman and Domo Kovacevic blasted in a single each.

Harry Rinnsma led Subo to their win over Holland Shop with three markers in the match while Bill Koeslag notched a fourth to clinch the game.

Scorers for Holland Shop were not available.

MOSQUITO
In Mosquito action Rockwood dumped Superior Glove 3-1 and Achilles Motors nipped Vets Pets 5-4.

The Rockwood scorers were not available and the lone Superior Glove goal was recorded by Chris Van Dam.

Jason Feenstra nailed a pair of goals for Achilles to lead his team to a win and Winston Pun, Brad Thorpe and Mark Manuel added single markers in the effort.

Vets Pets goals were tallied by Wayne Bousfield, with a pair and Craig Stuckey and Chris McGeragie added singles.

Atoms edged by Omagh

The Nellis Construction Atoms met some tough competition this week as they succumbed to Omagh 6-4 on Thursday.

Omagh set the pace in the opening inning of the match as they blasted in three runs right off the top but once Ryan Masales warmed up on the mound the Omagh batting line-up was shut down.

Masales also started off the Acton scoring drive as he singled to first and then rounded the bases on singles by Dwayne Sankey, Brad and Chris Hayter.

Omagh racked up another two runs in the second inning and then, walking three Acton batters and striking out the following three, they tallied up a two run lead.

Masales struck out three Omagh batters in the top of the third inning and despite two singles by Acton, Omagh managed to remain two runs ahead at the end of the third.

Omagh notched their final run in the top of the fourth inning and Brian Holbiski notched the fourth Acton run after walking to first and rounding the bases on three more walks from the Omagh pitcher.

Royal Trust pounds Pineview in opener

The Royal Trust Stingers ladies soccer club kicked off the 1984 season by defeating last year's league and cup champions, Pineview, 7-4.

After trailing 2-0 early in the game, the Royal Trust offense finally got rolling and the score was tied 3-3 by the end of the first half.

The second half of the match was controlled by Acton and they pulled away for a 7-4 win.

Goal scorers for the Acton ladies were Liza Nadhazi with three markers, Monica Biffis, with two and Amy Newman with a pair as well.

The Acton Pee-Wee girls, put out a superb effort in their first game of the season even though they lost to Pineview, 3-2.

The team played well on defence with a special effort by Catherine Kinnon and Lana Lampkin. Belinda Ofenka and Nicole Wilmott shared the goal tending duties.

Acton goals were scored by Marnie McLeod and Lee Gallant.

Also in Acton girls' soccer Acton Madels blanked Muddy Duck 2-0 in the Atom division and the Madels also blanked the Acton White / Red 4-0.

Nellis Atoms tops in mini tournament

The Nellis Construction-AB Foodland Atom boys journeyed to Bramalea Sunday to take part in an invitational mini tournament where they managed to take wins in both of their matches.

The mini tourney is the first in a series of games for the Atoms team which is being formed to represent Acton in the O.A.S.A. playdowns later this summer.

Game one saw the Acton squad come out with a decisive 12-5 win. In game two the local squad slipped by their opponents 3-1.

Scoring for Acton in game one were Dwayne Sankey, Brad Hayter and Jeremy Marsh with two runs each and Ryan Masales, Chris Hayter, Jason Dunn, Chad Rowsell, Dave Deforest and Jeremy Cooney recorded singles.

In game two the score remained tied 0-0 until the fifth and final frame of the game when Bramalea grabbed a 1-0 lead.

In an effort to salvage the game Chris Hayter, Dave Deforest and Brad Hayter got on base and a three run triple by Jason Dunn sent them home for the second win of the day.

The team's roster will not be completed until July 1 and try-outs will continue. So far the team consists of Ryan Masales, Dwayne Sankey, Ken Jaffrey, Chris Hayter, Brad Hayter, Jason Dunn, Chad Rowsell, Brett Wilson, Jeremy Marsh, Jeremy Cooney, Dave Deforest and Troy MacDougall.
