

Halton WI

83rd annual meet

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow was the theme of Halton District Women's Institute Annual Meeting in St. David's Presbyterian Church, Campbellville, May 17 at 12 noon.

Mrs. G. Henshelwood welcomed 112 guests, followed by an impressive "In Memorium" by Mrs. Spencer Wilson. Mrs. E. Norton gave an update on a successful year and thanked all for co-operation during her presidency.

Mrs. M. Leuty, ratified the 12 district directors. Mrs. C. Patterson was recognized for 25 yrs. as 4-H Club leader, Mrs. J. McLean, Mrs. G. Wingfield for 5 years and Anne Dodds for the beautiful W.I. Banner.

The theme was carried out in the most interesting convener's reports, moderated by Mrs. J. Wheelihan. Mrs. R. Alexander distributed quilt blocks to each branch for quilt raffle to be held later.

Provincial board member Mrs. M. Leuty brought news from FWIO including better program planning, special educational programs, child care workshops, World Food Day in October, each district to be responsible for $20 gift for FWIC convention in London in 1985. FWIC goal is to raise $50,000 by 1985 for water and sanitation project (Canpan A71). She reminded members in memorium donations are for non-members also. Dates to remember are: Erlend Lee week June 5, 6, and 7. Christmas at Lee Dec. 4 to 6, quilt competition at Agricultural Museum June 29 to Aug. 27.

Home Economist, Donna Santer reported successful 4-H clubs, and called attention to scholarships and bursaries available. Adult rug braiding courses will be held in the fall. At mid-afternoon coffee break, Nassagaweya women served birthday cake in honour of their 50th anniversary on that date.

Mrs. D. Lindsay announced bursary and scholarship awards to Marilyn Bird and Tammy Hunter, also bursary fees for 1985 are to be $10. Mrs. W. Knapp requested volunteers to host visiting WI members from Manchester, England in October.

Nassagaweya members presented a fashion show using the theme, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow.

Mrs. D. Lindsay presented Mrs. E. Norton with past-presidents' pin.
