Thousands enjoyed the annual Spring opening of the Croatian Cultural Centre in Halton Hills last Sunday. Folk dancing was one of the many entertaining features of a program which included speeches from area politicians praising the Croatian people for their enjoyment of life and dedication to Canadian ideals. The music and dancing was held away from houses to forestall criticism from neighbors. The day also commemorated the feast of St. Anthony, patron saint of Croatia and a namesake of many prominent Croatians.

'Spunky' name of Toy Library's new mascot

"Spunky" is to be the name of the North Halton Toy Library's new mascot, a little grey toy monkey who sits in a wheelchair because he has cerebral palsy. The winning name was chosen from many entries submitted by children in a recent contest. "We think 'Spunky' typifies the kind of spirit that it takes to deal with a handicap," says Toy Library chairman Audrey Hillman. "You need a lot of spunk, and you can tell by his cheerful smile and open arms that this little monkey has it." Spunky will now be a permanent resident of the Toy Library, which operates in George Kennedy Public School as a lending service for normal and handicapped children. Children are welcome to give Spunky a hug, a cuddle, or a ride in his wheelchair when they visit the Toy Library. "We were pleased with the response to this contest," says Kathryn Bailey, also of the Toy Library executive. "There were many entries submitted. We are grateful to Lynn Barnard of Penniesworth and Donna Robln of Georgetown Fabrics for displaying the monkey during the contest period." Jay Duval, age 7, will receive a record for his winning entry, and Kaylie Finnis, who was given Honourable Mention for her suggestion "Hairy Harry", will receive a gift certificate from Toy Magic.-30

SUMMER PASSES
 Save money this summer. If you like to swim during the hot summer months consider buying a Summer Pass. The usual admission fee for a child is 75¢ per swim—but a pass will admit you to as many swims as you like for three full months. If you swim once a day you would pay $67.50 (more if you swim twice a day) but a summer pass sets for only $18.00 — well worth the price! The pass is valid at all three of the Halton Hills Public Swimming Pools.
