

Three calls for firefighters

Firefighters were called to a Churchill Rd. North home to resuscitate a man apparently suffering a heart attack last Tuesday. The man was dead on arrival at hospital.

A barbecue fire at 7.30 p.m. Friday night at 98 Longfield Rd. caused an unestimated amount of damage.

A barbecue on the balcony of an apartment at 24 Ransom St. last Wednesday night was mistaken as a fire by a neighbor who called firefighters at 10.05 p.m.

Seven-year old Clark Northcott was in town visiting grandmother Kaye Hayner.

Fun fair!

Wearing a permanent smile he picked up at the face painting booth, two-year old Christian Hunsinger of Campbellville had a ball on the Brookville Public School playground gym. Thanks to the face painters, the fun fair was a wash with mini-clowns.

Joe Henderson, a Brookville native, had fellow villagers marvelling at his 1911 Edison Fireside Phonograph during Saturday's Nassagaweya Fun Fair. The stereo record player's great-granddaddy spun heavy-duty cylinders that sounded out clear as a bell, attesting to the high quality workmanship of a bygone era.
