Polka Dot Door Live, adapted from TVOntario's highly successful children's television series, will be appearing at the John Elliott Theatre, 9 Church Street, Georgetown, on Wednesday, June 27, from 3 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. An integral part of Ontario's Bicentennial SHOWCASE tour, Polka Dot Door Live will be performing in communities around the province from June 25 to August 18.

Half crews at half the price

Starting this year the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food is offering half crews, with two workers in place of four, and only $45. The half crew, like the four person crew, is available to full or part time farmers as well as agricultural societies to assist with work in times of need.

If you have a big job for four enthusiastic, hard working young people or if you just want two people to give you a hand with some odd jobs that need to be done, consider Agricrew. They are available from June 25 to August 17 to work and will arrive at the farm at a time specified by the farmer.

Agricrew will work an eight hour day at what you want, be it to help bring in the hay, to clean up weeds or to get rid of that pile of junk that you are tired of looking at.

For reasons of safety Agricrew will not use chainsaws or creosote, do second storey construction or drive farm vehicles on the road.

Anyone wishing to book a crew may contact Nick De Boer at 451-5474 (Brampton) or 878-2314 (Milton) or drop in at the office of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food.
