

'It comes out here'

The workings of an antique Band Organ once used in the circus are of great interest to viewers. Owned by Captain John Leonard of St. Catharines who has an extensive collection of antiques, the old organ will be supplying a variety of music for Pioneer Days in downtown Georgetown. Above is a side view of the giant instrument which provided some of the background music in the current motion picture, "The Natural". It was photographed at the Steam Era in Milton.
