

Bantams bombed in Fergus final

The Acton Thomas Video Bantams had little trouble reaching the final of a 16 team tourney in Fergus this past weekend but once they got there it was a different story. The local squad rolled over Kitchener, Caledon and Fergus in mercy rules games before meeting up with the defending tourney champs from Owen Sound in the final, suffering their worst defeat in some time—14-1.

The Acton club met Kitchener in their opening round match and coasted after taking a 2-0 first inning lead. They added six runs in the bottom of the fifth to put the Kitchener squad to rest after threatening in each of the previous innings.

On the Saturday the locals met Caledon and after a slow start put an end to the contest with a five run fifth and a 9-2 victory overall.

Kevin Lobsinger pitched the win, allowing three hits.

Caledon claimed a 3-0 lead in the top of the first on an Acton throwing error but the locals got one back in the bottom of the inning as Jeff White led off with a double and scored.

The score remained that way until the Acton fourth when the bats came to life. Peter Cargill, Mark Fries and David Haynes, touched the plate to give Acton the lead.

Cargill, Fries and Haynes touched home again in the fifth along with Jason Rogers and Hammer to give the locals the win by mercy rule.

In the tourney semi-finals against the host Fergus squad the locals picked up two runs in the third inning as Mike Case and Brian Doherty rounded the bags and then added eight runs over the final two innings for an eventual 10-3 triumph.

In the battle with Owen Sound the Thomas Video squad got off on the wrong foot giving up a lead-off triple. The Sound squad never looked back picking up six runs before the inning was over and never looking back.

The Acton side added one in the bottom of the inning as Kevin Lobsinger scored but it was as close as it would get.

Owen Sound added one in the second and that was the way the score remained until the sixth when Owen Sound teed-off for five more. They added a pair in their final at bat for a 14-1 final.

Kevin Lobsinger had a rough day on the mound suffering the loss. David Haynes came on in relief shutting down the potent Owen Sound offense for four innings before their sixth inning explosion.

Tedbits trample Hornby

The Acton Atom girls recorded three wins in their last three games, downing Omagh 18-6, Glen Williams 16-5 and Hornby 13-11.

Against Omagh, Tracey Hagan, Andrea Leeking, Tracey Shorthill and Tracey Cripps notched three hits apiece to pace an 18 hit attack.

Samantha Gudgeon and Tammy Richard had two hits while Kim Corkum, Kelly Ambrose and Michelle Beulieuau pounded out singles.

At Glen Williams the score was tied 4-4 going into the fourth frame but the Tyler Tedbits exploded for seven runs to break the game wide open.

Tammy Joe Richard led the onslaught with three hits, Tracey Cripps, Tracey Hagan, Kelly Ambrose and Tracey Shorthill had two runs each and Samantha Gudgeon, Andrea Leeking and Wendy Graham pegged one run each.

In Hornby the Acton pitchers were uncharacteristically wild tallying 13 walks but their bats were just as wild as they cracked out a dozen hits.

Kim Corkum did a great job on the mound as relief pitcher allowing only two runs in three innings.

Tracey Hagan led the Acton assault with three runs in the match and lead-off batter Samantha Gudgeon belted out three runs as well. Kelly Ambrose smashed out a double and a single while Tammy Richard, Tracey Shorthill and Kim Corkum scored once each.

Debbie Swinamer and Shannon McAffee each recorded two walks and two runs scored against them on the mound.

Wendy Graham was credited with the best defence of the game when she snared a one-hop line drive and threw the opposing runner out at first.
