

Changes at Acton I.G.A.

CHARLIE AUGER, background, gives final instructions to Gunner Jespersen in the meat department of Acton IGA. Changes in ownership have resulted in change of management in the store. Mr. Auger is now store manager.

ALAN JONES is the new produce manager in training at IGA since it was purchased by Dave Manes from L. W. Ruse and Sons Ltd.

Acton IGA is undergoing a facelift with new owner Dave Manes in charge.

Mr. Manes bought out the shares of L. W. Ruse and Sons Ltd. recently and is not only making interdepartmental changes, but physical ones as well.

Former meat department manager Charlie Auger has been named store manager. Taking over behind the meat counter for him is Gunner Jespersen, of R.R. 2, Rockwood, Alan Jones is the produce manager-in-training.

The exterior of the store is currently undergoing renovations. Inside will be repainted, and a new floor put down. New cash registers have been purchased along with a new computer, and another computer scale for exact weights.

Mr. Manes stressed that he wants to make his customers happy, and hopes if they have any suggestions or criticism they will go to him instead of "to the next door neighbor".

In the next little while, the new owner said, several specials will be on the shelves for customers. These specials are in honor of the new store image.

He also pointed out one shopper in the Acton IGA will win a free trip to Grand Bahama Island. He said all provincial stores are offering the trip, with one winner per store.

Mr. Manes also owns Jug City in Georgetown.

DAVE MANES is the new owner of Acton IGA.

Members report at April meeting

The regular monthly meeting of L'Arche Auxiliary was held at the home of Verna Harrison, Lakeview Ave., with a good attendance of members.

The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and approved. The correspondence secretary also gave a report and read several "thank you" notes received.

The "Flowers of Hope" campaign gets underway in May and a good part of the meeting was taken with the various plans necessary for a successful campaign.

Members of the Auxiliary have been stuffing envelopes with flower seeds and these were distributed to the various team captains. Julie Conroy reported that she will be showing an excellent film "Who Shall Survive" to the Catholic Women's League at their meeting May 9 and extended an invitation to anyone interested to attend the meeting. The film will also be shown to the Christian Reformed Church Ladies Society May 12 and the YMCA

"Take A Break" the same week. Jenny Kuiken reported on the Cash for Life lottery which is under way and reminded members that the final draw is May 6. Tickets are still available for the weekly draws prior to that date.

Daughters of Knox discuss Belize

The April meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held on Monday, April 3, in the Mary Ellen Anderson Room of the Presbyterian Church. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Jack Pink who was ill, the meeting was chaired by Mrs. Walter Korpela. Mrs. Korpela opened with the reading of a poem entitled "Be Strong".

The hymn "Living For Jesus" was then sung, and the club mottoes repeated.

Several business items were discussed, after the reading of the minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report. It has been decided that the Daughters of Knox will replace the church's old projector and projection screen.

Mrs. W. E. Hansen and her group were in charge of the Study portion of the meeting which dealt with the city of Belize, capital of British Honduras. Much of the finest mahogany of the world comes from Belize.

The meeting was then closed with the singing of "The Right Hand of God"—the theme song of the study book "Caribbean Crescent".

It was announced that two leaders are needed for the
