

Curling Club results

by Karen Knickle

Well the curling season has come to an end; for some of us, not soon enough; for others, all too soon. Of course there are still the "die hards" who will have bonspiels on their calendars. But then again, the season never ends for curling nuts; the ice just gets a little "heavy".

Play-offs have just been completed, finally, so the first place standings for this draw are as follows:

Monday night 7 o'clock draw saw Peter Ginn's rink of Joyce Iglesias, Bill Geggie and Jean Ager meet the 9 o'clock draw. This rink was made up of Carl Rosenquist, Karen Knickle, Dave McCuechon and Bonnie Walker. After a grueling playoff match (because of the merry making done by curlers during the hospitality weekend) Carl Rosenquist's rink emerged victorious and will receive the Park and Tilford Trophy at the closing banquet.

Tuesday night 7 o'clock draw saw Brian Moore's rink of Joyce Iglesias, Ray St. Onge and Carol Korpela as overall winner with not one loss. Brian and his team had nine wins and one tie. Way to work team! The 9 o'clock draw winner was the rink skipped by Richard Bruce. The vice was Helen Otterbeln, second Anne Cook and lead Gerry Hacke. Ben Wingrove's rink had been in the lead till Richard overtook the lead. Your slip from first place, Ben wouldn't be due to that spare tire you acquired while away in Florida?

Wednesday afternoon ladies' playoff game for the Rachlin Trophy saw the rink of Finni Verbik, Carol Korpela, Jean Ager and Heather Ferguson as winner. Congratulations to our new skip on the block and her rink. Second place winner was Linda Ross's rink of Isabel McKenzie, Alison Ginn and Jean Strath.

Wednesday night men's 7 o'clock draw for the Blow Press Trophy had as winners Rod Donaldson's rink of Brian Reid, Rick Wunder and Ron Wunder. It might be mentioned that this winning rink consisted of all first year high school curlers.

Wednesday night 9 o'clock "chase your own team" draw for the Bank of Montreal Trophy saw an interesting final playoff game between the rinks skipped by Don Ross and Fred Archibald. As reported earlier Fred Archibald's rink of Bill Cripps, Pete Vidler and Glen Gray won that exciting match 5-4. The playdowns for a second trophy have John Mintern's rink of Howard Campbell, Doug Appleyard and Graham Peel and Bill Porter's rink of Carl Rosenquist, Richard Bruce and Scott Crooks, doing battle, end result being Bill Porter's rink declared the winner.

Thursday night ladies' playoffs had the rinks of Karen Shortill and Sue Patrick in keen competition. The winner of the Thursday night ladies' trophy this year was Sue Patrick's rink. Congratulations girls!

Friday night 7 o'clock and 9 o'clock draws had a playoff match for the Credit Union Trophy. The 7 o'clock team consists of Del Hickling, Anne Pickering, Glen Gray and Norma Hickling. The 9 o'clock rink is made up of Brian Robertson, Trev Loutett, Ron Loutett and Jane Robertson. After playing only eight ends the winner was declared to be Del's rink. Congratulations to the first 7 o'clock draw team to win this overall mixed competitive trophy.

Several out of club spiels have come to my attention and here they are as reported by various participating members.

The Left Handers Spiel is reported by Glen Gray. Bill Porter, Peter Vidler, Glen Gray and Colin Ager journeyed to Oakville Curling

Club on March 17-19 to take part in the fifth annual world left-handers championships. Although disposing of the foursome skipped by Harvey Chappel in their opening match, Bill Porter's rink never again reached their potential and struggled through the remaining six games of the bonspiel ending up in the consolation match of the fifth event.

Although finishing with a record of three wins and four losses, Bill's rink never lost any of their games by more than one point and were not outclassed by any of the rinks at the bonspiel.

Bill, Pete, Glen and Colin look forward to another exciting weekend of curling and blisters next year and for your information, a curler named Savage from the Toronto area won the event this year.

Stratford's Mixed St. Patrick's Day Spiel as reported by Nicki Campbell: This spiel was held on March 11, in Stratford. The team consisted of Howard Campbell as skip, Nicki Campbell as vice and Udo and Fiona Fieback, two old Acton members, as second and lead respectively. Out of 24 rinks this team placed second in the first event.

In the Apple Blossom Spiel out of the Dixie Club April 8 and 9 Fred Archibald's rink of Bill Cripps, Peter Vidler and SUE KINAL SCORNS Yves Savard for daring to love someone above his station. She plays the captain's daughter and he a common sailor in H.M.S. Pinafore, being presented next week by McKenzie-Smith students.

Glen Gray won two of their three games entitling them to return this following Saturday, to compete the competition. Good luck fellas!

There was a Last Chance Spiel held at the club this past week giving anyone interested a last chance to curl before the ice goes out. The overall winner from the ten teams entered was the rink skipped by Peter Ginn. Presentations will be made at the closing banquet.

women's competitive curling will be discussed. Please try to attend to voice your opinion. Awards and trophies will also be presented. The closing dinner and dance along with awards for the whole club will be held Saturday April 19. Everyone is welcome along with guests. Get your tickets! It should be a good time for all. A last chance to re-hash those famous shots from the past year, gang!

BANTAMS

1st Shift: The Caterpillars chewed up both games and totals, leaving nothing for the Butterflies. The Ants took the sting out of the Scorpions as they took both games and totals. The Wasps stung the first game but the Bees counteracted the Wasps to take the last game and totals.

Standings: Wasps 49, Ants 45, Bees 38 1/2, Scorpions 38, Caterpillars 34 1/2, Butterflies 30.

2nd Shift: The Fireflies lit up to take both games and totals from the Flies while the Beetles beat the Hornets to both games and totals. The Moths ate holes in the first game but the Mosquitoes patched them up to take the last game and totals.

Standings: Fireflies 54, Moths 43, Hornets 39 1/2, Mosquitoes 37, Flies 35 1/2, Beetles 25.

Top Ten: Stewart Hoy 325 (199), Kevin Galloway 312 (175), Grant Smith 281 (136), Jeffery White 252 (145), Rondine Blinn 252 (130), Annie Grein 238 (123), Robbie Watson 233 (123), Nancy Van Der Eyken 233 (121), Gaynor Jenkinson 232 (132), Barry Manes 231 (117), Todd Lazenby 226 (120), Brent Wedge 224 (138).

The Coke and Orange Crush winners for the first shift were Gaynor Jenkinson with 49 pins over average and Steven Petty with 37 pins over average while the second shift winners were Jill Whelan with 34 pins over average and Todd Lazenby with 33 pins over average.

JUNIORS

1st Shift: The Poms lapped up the first and third games and totals but the Collies put the collar on the second game. The Poodles shaved off the first game and totals but the Dalmatians spotted and claimed the last two games. The Terriers tore up the first and third games while the Yorkies used body English to take the second game and totals.

Standings: Poms 39 1/2, Dalmatians 63, Terriers 52 1/2, Poodles 46 1/2, Yorkies 41 1/2, Collies 39.

2nd Shift: The Pekes marked all games and totals to their favour leaving nothing for the Chihuahuas. The Shelties rounded up the first game but the Huskies munched on for the last two games and totals. The Beagles lapped up the first game but the Bulldogs bullied them to take the last two games and totals.

Standings: Shelties 65, Pekes 54, Bulldogs 52 1/2, Beagles 51 1/2, Huskies 50, Chihuahuas 49.

Top Ten: Rita Bolter 536 (229), Allan Larsen 531 (227), Tracey Gordon 529 (218), Danny Gibson 507 (195), Bob Little 500 (210), Jaye Gerth 500 (187), Wade Sheppard 498 (195), Tracey Clarke 483 (191), Steven McDonald 474 (175), Lisa Mason 468 (166).

This was the last week of regular season bowling for the Bantam and Juniors. Next week these leagues will begin the first of a three week playoff with the teams in the first four places playing for the championship while the teams in fifth and sixth place play for consolation trophies for two weeks. The last week will see the winners of the first shifts play off against the winners of the second shifts to determine the playoff ahead champions. Bowling for the playoffs will not be allowed so get out to support your teams and good luck to all.

SENIORS

The Pines needed the Birches for all games and totals while the Elms chopped down the Palms for all games and totals. The Redwoods outgrew the first and third games but the Cedars cut the second game out of the middle.

Standings: Pines 62, Elms 55, Cedars 53, Redwoods 49 1/2, Birches 47, Palms 45 1/2.
