We Wish You

Another sparkling ice show ended the season for Acton Figure Skating club and delighted the crowds totaling 1,200. There were afternoon and evening performances of We Wish You a Rainbow on Saturday with all of 200 young skaters taking part.

The theme was colours, with each section labelled in a special hue.

Sally Leatherland, one of the club pros, directed the show this year. The other pros assisting her are Pat te Boekhorst and another woman who is new here this year, Francine Pawlowicz of Mississauga. They were presented with gifts at the end of the program, and the coaches were also given gifts.

Simon Christensen was carnival chairman and in charge of the props.

The costumes were delightful as usual. Pearl Sawden and Carol Campbell were in charge and did a "fantastic" job, according to Mrs. Leatherland. Many mothers and volunteers helped them.

Charlie Perry was backstage man for the 15th year. No longer peeking out from behind the curtain to watch his daughters, he is now keeping a proud eye on his granddaughters.

Brian Webber did the music and Ed Leatherland gave the commentary.

Unfortunately the ice machine broke down and the Georgetown machine had to be rushed up Friday. Despite best attempts, the ice was not up to its usual standard, causing several falls among the cast.

Mrs. Leatherland said she has heard many words of praise following the show, and she herself was well satisfied with the young people.

Taking solo parts were Linda Oso, Michael Creighton, David McGilloway, Stacey Perry, Cindy McGilloway and Diane Baginski.
