Golden Age Club

Three picnics on schedule

Three picnics are on the agenda for the Acton Golden Age Club. We will join with Rockwood Sunshine Club on Thursday, June 28, at 12:30 noon for a pot luck. Please bring your dishes and cutlery along with your contribution.

On Tuesday, July 10, a free bus will take us to the beautiful La Salle Park near Burlington where Zone 13 picnic will be held. The bus will leave the usual places at 10:50 a.m. and registration is at 11:30. No matter how hot the day is, lovely shady trees make the day enjoyable. Members are asked to bring their own lunch and beverage. Acton is responsible for one game.

Our own picnic will be on July 18, our regular evening meeting day, but at 3 o'clock and planning to have it at the legion. Members please bring your cutlery and dishes along with either salads, meats, desserts etc. Beverage will be supplied. This is a beautiful place and was thoroughly enjoyed last year.

The June evening meeting was held at St. Alban's on the 20th with a good attendance. President Isabel McDonald read a poem and the roll call by Jean Jackson secretary. Jean McLean presided at the piano for the birthday song to Lillian Berry and Martha Hannakainen—the anniversary song to Lillian and Tom Berry—Fred and Mary Lemon. A moments silence was observed in memory of one of our members, Agnes Holmes.

We were happy to hear that Marjorie Hall and Joe Fuller were both home from the hospital.

The secretary's report was read by Edna Besley substituting for the holidaying Marg Spielvogel. Jean Jackson gave the treasurer's report and Helen Pickett, the card report.

Irene Terry as travel convenor reminded all who were going to Geritol Falls on July 4 that the bus would be leaving at 12 noon sharp. We will be having dinner on the way home.

Sandy Booth tried his hand at tying a quilt at the Limehouse Women's Institute display as Elaine Hanna looks on at Canada Day in Limehouse.

Ebenezer

There will be no church services for the next two Sundays, July 8 and 15.

Sympathy is extended to the Cleggs in the death of Beryl's father in England.

Charlie Thomson is a patient in hospital.
