Firm fined $1,000

Ontario Fire Code violations recently resulted in fines totalling $1,000 for a local manufacturing firm. The firm pleaded guilty to two charges in Provincial Offences Court in Milton on June 21.

Chief Cunningham, Halton Hills Fire Department, stated the charges were laid after numerous attempts made by himself and his staff failed to obtain the co-operation of company management to improve fire safety measures.

Chief Cunningham indicated this is only the third time since the inception of the Ontario Fire Code that the Halton Hills Fire Department has found it necessary to lay charges for persons failing to comply.

"Our primary function is to seek the co-operation of our citizens in making our community more fire safe and for the most part we receive full co-operation" stated Chief Cunningham. "However, there are some incidents where we are left no alternative but to use the courts."
