

Matthew Woudstra, 8, of Acton watched himself and his friends on television last week. See story in Newsmakers.

Ebenezer

Churches join services

by Mrs. R. McLean
 Next Sunday, services will be held at the usual times, at the three churches. Aug. 12 joint service will be held at Eden Mills; Aug. 19 at Arkell and Aug. 26 at Ebenezer. All services will be at 10.30. Gord Truscott, a student at Atlantic School of Theology, took the services. He spoke on "Lord, what do you want me to do?" God came to Saul in a blinding light. Saul had two questions, "Who are you?" and "What do you want me to do?" We live in God's world. He allows us to reach out to others in life, to be a vessel, which God can use to help others. We don't know the burdens others may be carrying. Our initial calling is to love ourselves. Laurie Early played the organ in the absence of the organist. Rev. Sam Wigston is cadet captain at Camp Ipperwash.

Terry Fox Run

Organizers of the annual Terry Fox Run are now looking for group and individual commitments for local organizing, with this year's fund-raising run set for Sept. 23. Now's the time to plan your own involvement. Watch the Free Press for further details.
