

Obituary

Don Timmings ran Acton Dairy

Proprietor of the Acton Dairy for 16 years, Donald James Timmings died suddenly July 28 in Kitchener. He was 55.

A Guelph resident at the time of his death, Mr. Timmings was born July 7, 1929, in Long Branch, to Sidney and Irene Timmings. He lived in Port Credit before moving to Acton, where he settled for 18 years.

Mr. Timmings married Evalene Ida Braida in August, 1954, in Acton. She died in 1965. He is also predeceased by the couple's only daughter, Marianne.

Mr. Timmings is survived by brother Syd in Alton and by his sons John of Kitchener, Jim and Paul of Rockwood, Philip of Vancouver and Ken in Hamilton.

A funeral service was held July 31 at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Acton with Father Ralph Diodati officiating.

Interment followed at Fairview Cemetery, where pallbearers were nephew Rob Timmings of Toronto, Brent Marshall and Lloyd McIntyre of Acton, Rob Smelter of Rockwood and Tom Thring and Woody Douglas of Guelph.

ALWAYS ONE IN THE CROWD
Ah, summer, when life just floats along—except for the occasional splash that hits you square in the face. The outdoor pool in Prospect Park is, needless to say, a popular place for the children these days, but we suspect their accompanying moms and dads don't mind a little wade as well.

Big day at museum
The Halton County Radial Railway near Rockwood plans a special historical display Aug. 18 and 19 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. featuring street car rides and other attractions. Special attention will be paid to the old Toronto Suburban Railway, promoted by Sir William MacKenzie and Acton-born Sir Donald Mann and operated between 1917 and 1931. The museum is located on the Guelph Line just south of Highway 7 on Wellington Rd. 44.

Big Bird comes to visit
Toronto's Follow That Bird Productions, a motion picture company, is looking for hundreds of area residents to line Main St. in Georgetown Aug. 13 and 14 as extras in a new feature film entitled "Follow That Bird". Big Bird and the crew from television's Sesame Street will be on hand starting at 10.30 a.m. each morning.

DIVE
Into an algae free pool.

Keeping your pool in perfect form requires more than just chlorine. Heavy rains and lots of bathers can use up a pool's chlorine and allow algae to grow. Help your chlorine. Every two weeks, add Algicide Inhibitor. It's algae and keeps the water sparkling. Don't wait for visible signs of algae. Dive in with Back Up now. To prevent algae and expensive algae problems, bring your pool to BioGuard.
