Lori DeBruyn, Denis Kirton wed in June 16 double ring ceremony

A romantic holiday in the honeymoon capital of the world, Niagara Falls, awaited Lori Marie DeBruyn of Acton and William Denis Kirton of RR 2 Rockwood following their wedding June 16 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

Lori, a stenographer with CNCP Telecommunications, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garry DeBruyn of Mill St. West. William, employed by Northern Telecom, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirton of RR 2 Rockwood.

Father Ralph Diodati conducted the double ring ceremony at which organist Pat Salt provided musical accompaniment.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white, long-sleeved gown of Jersey-satin material with a train attached. The gown's high neck featured a lace inset matched with the lace at the cuffs. Lori also wore a matching satin-covered hat with a knee-length veil and carried a bouquet of silk pink roses, pink and white carnations and baby's breath.

A friend of the bride, Laurie Moreau of Acton, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lori's sister, Colleen DeBruyn of Toronto, and sisters of the groom Penny Kirk of Acton and Sherry and

MR. AND MRS. DENIS KIRTON

Carrie Kirton of Rockwood. All wore matching off-the-shoulder long gowns of pink and mauve satin with chiffon overlays that bustled up in the back. They wore matching hats and carried baskets of silk pink, mauve and white flowers and baby's breath.

Best man was a friend of the groom, Bill Curry of Acton, and other friends Scott Timbers and Dave Anderson, also of Acton, served as ushers. They wore matching teal blue suits.

Fred Buchanan was master of ceremonies at the evening dinner and reception that followed at Rockmosa Hall in Rockwood. Some 200 guests enjoyed a meal highlighted by the cutting of a wedding cake made and decorated by Edna Gibson, a friend of the family.

Flowers for the occasion were prepared by the groom's sister, Penny Kirk.

The mother of the bride received guests wearing a turquoise gown with a corsage of yellow roses. The mother of the groom wore a beige gown with a burgundy rose corsage.

Special guests included grandparents Lil Bradshaw of Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Chris DeBruyn of Milton and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Kirton of Toronto, and godparents Mr. and Mrs. Gene Melton of Toronto.

Prior to her wedding day, Lori was honored with a number of memorable showers. The best man and ushers hosted a stag for the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirton are now making their home at 78 Longfield Rd. in Acton.

Newlyweds fly to Barbados honeymoon

A honeymoon in Barbados followed the May 28 wedding of Judith Margaret Krul and Gerald Stanley Mulder.

The bride is the daughter of John and and fingertip veil. The dress and hat were made by the bride.

Her bouquet consisted of white roses, white freesia, stephanotis, eucalyptus and dieffenbachia leaves.

The maid of honor was Joanne Brousseau, friend of the bride from Toronto. Bridesmaids were Greta Luimes, cousin of the groom from Ottawa and Wil Mulder, sister of the groom from Thornhill. Junior bridesmaid was Patricia Krul, sister of the bride from Acton. Flowergirl for the occasion was Jennifer Lipomi, niece of the groom from California.

The maid of honor, bridesmaids and junior bridesmaid wore waltz-length dresses of cobalt blue lightweight satin with long sleeves and dropped waists. The flower girl wore a white dress similar in style to the other attendants.

The bridesmaids carried s-shaped arm bouquets of dark pink roses, alstroemeria and lily of the valley. The flower girl carried a white basket of white roses, white freesia and stephanotis.

The best man was Mike Mol, friend of the groom from Brampton. Ushers were Tom Luimes, of Ottawa, Larry Luigendorff and Mike Ufkes, both from Brampton. The ringbearer for the occasion was Barrett Lipomi, nephew of the groom from California.

The groom and the ringbearer wore classic black cut-aways with silver grey vests and pants. The groomsmen wore silver grey tuxedos with matching bowtie and cummerbund.

The organ and piano music for the ceremony was provided by Harvey Mulder, brother of the groom. He was accompanied by Gillian Smith on the French horn.

The guest list included the bride's grandmother and great aunt, who flew in from Holland. Other guests travelled from California, Winnipeg and Ottawa to attend.

Prior to the wedding the bride was given a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. A. Kroes and Mrs. A. Kroezen and a Jack and Jill Dance was hosted by the wedding party or the couple.

After their honeymoon the couple moved to Ottawa, where the groom is beginning employment as a manager of Arnprior Chrysler Body Shop.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD MULDER

Thea Krul of Acton and the groom is the son of Ralph and Frances Mulder of Brampton.

The double ring ceremony took place at Beth-El Christian Reformed Church in Acton with the Rev. P. de Bruyne from Brampton officiating. A tea reception followed the ceremony and a sit-down dinner was held at the Terra Cotta Inn.

The bride wore a full length taffeta gown with chapel train, high neck and a fitted bodice all appliqued with Alencon lace and seed pearls. Her headpiece was a cap trimmed with seed pearls, holding a face
