

Mauraders top Tornadoes in tourney final

A total of 24 ladies powderpuff teams from Georgetown, Acton, Erin, Burlington, Milton, Rockwood, Brampton and Orangeville suited up for baseball action at the Georgetown Fairgrounds on the weekend in the Fourth Annual Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff Softball Tourney.

When the final dust had cleared it was the Acton Mauraders that claimed the tourney title and the Georgetown Tornadoes that were the runners-up. The Milton Bag Bitters copped the consolation crown over Cox's Crew from Acton.

Georgetown teams did quite well over the weekend with all ten Georgetown league teams taking part. In the opening round seven of the ten local powderpuff entries came up winners three reaching the semi-finals.

The Acton Mauraders came away with the tourney honors but not without some excitement. The Acton squad lost their opening match 13-12 to J.R. Tire of Brampton but had the game reversed after it was revealed that the Brampton squad used an illegal player in the game. It was the break Acton needed as they went on to win their next four to claim the title. Along the way they disposed of Double Trouble of Acton 11-10, O'Toole's 13-5 and the Pink Panthers 7-5 in the semi-final.

The Tornadoes gave it their all despite falling 14-2 in the championship match. The local side topped Acton's Black Brigade 14-11, Payton's Choice 17-14, and the Burgandy Brats 6-5.

The Milton Bag Bitters fell 13-11 to Double Trouble in their opener but from then on they were unbeatable. They ousted J.R. Tire 10-9, the Knight Riders 15-2, the Blue Nuns 18-2 and then Cox's 19-3 in the final.

The Cox team from Acton fell to Payton's Choice 9-7 in the opening round before disposing of the Black Brigade 18-11, and the Gold Stars 17-5.
