Graham search for 'Equestrian of Year'

Fresh from the Los Angeles Olympics, Limehouse native Hugh Graham was at it again earning points toward a berth in the World Cup and toward the Dunhill Equestrian of the Year honors, on Sunday at the Cheltenham Gold Cup International Horse Show.

Graham, now of King City, joined Olympic teammates Jim Elder, Mario Deslauriers, and Ian Miller at the event as all searched for the $6,000 first place money. When the points were tallied none of them had been able to outdo Gail Greenough, who earned the top honors for the day.

Graham rode two horses in the event, Don't Look Back, and his Olympic horse Elrond. Don't Look Back is in his first year of Grand Prix jumping and didn't fare too well but aboard Elrond, the native son turned in a flawless performance becoming one of four to advance without penalty points to a shortened "jump-off" course.

In the jump-off Greenough was first up going through without any faults putting the pressure on the other riders. Graham finished the four way jump off in fourth spot and earned $1,400 for his efforts.

Elrond, the horse Graham rode to the fourth place finish, was one of only four horses to go flawless on the Olympic course.

Despite the fourth place in the Cheltenham Gold Cup event Graham still leads the 'Equestrian of the Year' points competition with one event remaining. The final event of the series is the 'Tournament of Champions' held at the end of September near Newmarket.
