

Sun shines on Ciderfest spectacular

Ken Lister, Pat Kentner, Lorie Ryan, June Jansen and Paul Colbourne enjoy a cool one at the Ciderfest beer garden on Mill St.

The art of axe-throwing was being demonstrated by some local "voyageurs" Saturday at their camp on Mill St. during Ciderfest. This was a near miss for Dave Bird.

Councillor Dave Whiting has his apple sauce shovelled in by a delighted Gord Dawe in Saturday's apple sauce contest.

Home Hardware took top prize in the Ciderfest window decorating contest, earning its owners a dinner for two at their favorite Acton restaurant. Honorable mentions went to Carpet Corner (best theme-related window), the Fabric Shoppe (most attractive), Blue Spring Flowers (most colorful) and Robertson Flowers (best seasonal).

Runners and cyclists start off on their five or 10-kilometre journey through the streets of Acton as part of the Ciderfest celebrations Saturday. Participants were required to run and cycle the course. For more Ciderfest sports, see the Free Press sports section.

Mike Hahn of Acton didn't have much luck in the Ciderfest fishing derby Sunday. According to contest co-ordinator Herb Dodds, only a few small sunfish were caught, but everyone involved had a great time.

Household Hints
From Pauline McNally

Do you make your own baby food? Freeze it in ice cube trays and then store the cubes in a plastic bag. It's easy to thaw out serving size amounts.

Whipped cream will whip higher and stand up longer if you add light corn syrup about a teaspoon per cup of cream when whipping.
