

Eden Mills

S. Africans among holiday guests

by Mrs. G. Macdonald
Mrs. H. McIntosh has returned from a holiday with her son, Rev. W. Sims at his cottage at Magnetawan.
Fifteen residents plus volunteers and staff of Eden House Nursing Home enjoyed a bus trip to Niagara Falls arranged by Activities Director Betty Marshall.

Ruth Barden and daughter Brenda from Holt, Michigan, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barden and friends and relatives recently.
Ivan and Janet Lockett from Port Elizabeth, South Africa were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blacklock and Linda.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemmer enjoyed a few days with Irma's sister and brothers at the Lowrie farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Tolton have returned from a vacation at Cave Lake.
Fred Rinehart was the guest of honor at a beautiful surprise party on the occasion of his 65th birthday, neatly arranged by his wife Jean.
Seventy relatives, friends and neighbors gathered on their patio and lawn to shower Fred with gifts, cards and hosts of congratulations and good wishes.
There were also a few practical jokes, one being a large Nassagaweya "pet rock" nicely ribboned and left to adorn the front lawn. The buffet was attractive and delicious and the birthday cake made by Agnes Link was especially well decorated with small scenes that are part of Fred's life.
Fred was toasted with champagne by former school mates and dear friends and all wish him many more happy healthy years.
Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barden visited Ted's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Robson at Beamsville on a recent Sunday afternoon.

News Digest
Careless driving

A 34-year-old Acton man was charged with careless driving after he struck a tree on the Erin/Eramosa Township line just west of County Rd. 50 last Tuesday.
The man was travelling east on the town line when his car left the road, entered the ditch and struck a tree, causing $1,000 damage. No injuries were reported.

Officer's murder hits home
Actonians were dismayed to see the name of a former neighbor mentioned in this week's news reports on the murder of Dwayne Piukkala, a Peel policeman, in Mississauga Sunday. Toronto daily newspapers noted that the 24-year-old constable was the younger brother of Detective Sergeant Rodney Piukkala, a former Acton resident. The elder Piukkala, who now lives in Mississauga, is a member of the Peel police homicide squad.

Off to see Pope
Organizers of the Sept. 15 visit to Toronto and Midland by Pope John Paul II have announced special preparations for elderly citizens who wish to attend his Mass at Downsview airport. Group visits to the site, where an area close to the altar with medical facilities and washrooms is reserved for senior citizens, can be accommodated through the special needs committee (964-7676). Call about tickets and other special arrangements for seniors and others with special needs planning to attend alone or in groups.
