Christine shows 'em right way to catch fish

By MRS. G. MACDOUGALL

Just a reminder that anyone interested in karate lessons may register at the Community Centre Sept. 10 from 7 to 9 p.m. Terry Cole will be the instructor.

Dave, Sharyn and Mark Banks enjoyed a leisurely vacation around Port Dalhousie and then up to points of interest in Prince Edward county.

Nick and Jan Gould have returned from their holidays at Gravenhurst where they had as visitors Mike, Debbie and Christine Marshall and Monika Tomlinson and David. Here's a fishing story. Nick, Mike and his three-year old daughter Christine went fishing and within an hour Christine caught ten small fish and Daddy and friend zero. Nice catch!!

Mike and Debbie Marshall entertained Dave and Monika Tomlinson, Nick and Jan Gould and Ron and Caroline Marshall at their cottage on Doe Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barden and grandson Jimmy Barden of Galt spent the weekend with Ev's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Med Harkness at Teeswater.

Mrs. Jeannette Montgomery has returned from a lovely two-week vacation with her daughter, Gail, son-in-law and two grandchildren in Austin, Texas.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hosking on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Their family entertained at an open house for friends and neighbors September 1 at the lovely Hosking home.

Sincere get well wishes to Edith Jennings who has returned from hospital after suffering a broken bone in her shoulder.

The UCW held their August meeting at the home of Ethel Griggs.

The president opened with a "Thought on Good Intentions." Betty Snow was in charge of devotions with a reading on "Count your change in life."

Plans were made for the noon luncheons in the Community Hall for the fall months starting Sept. 5 and also for the cleaning of the church before Anniversary which is the last Sunday in September.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Wilma Fuller.

Pastoral asst. will be missed

Rev. Craig Rumble, our pastoral assistant for the year, gave his last sermon at Church Sunday.

Smith Griffin extended our best wishes for his future in the ministry and presented him with a gift from the congregation. Craig has been a great asset to the church and will be missed.

Church services will be at 11 a.m. starting Sept. 9, when Rev. E. Jenkins will be in the pulpit. Sunday School classes will also resume this week.

The annual chicken barbecue will be held Sept. 22 from 5 to 7 p.m. Tickets are available now and we look forward to another successful event.
