Ospringe

Sunday School Rally Day

By DORIS FINES
All prospective Brownies, Guides, Cubs and Scouts in the Ospringe area are asked to come to Ospringe school Sept. 12 between 7 and 8:30 p.m. for registration.
Next Sunday (Sept. 9) is rally day for Ospringe Sunday School beginning at 10:35 a.m. All children in the community aged 3 to 16 are welcome. There will be games and treats for everybody. Bring a friend—or several friends. Come and help start Sunday School off with a bang.
Joan Silk went north to Cochrane for a little holiday this summer. She is again teaching guidance and one class of history at Georgetown District High School.
Debbie and Susie Silk were working at Camp New Moon at Baysville for the summer.

Sherlock Foreman of Fort Worth, Texas, was up to a reunion at Wardsville and called on friends in this area. Gordon Altken, who has moved to Portland, returned for a day and took Sherlock back with him.
Congratulations are due to Alex and Helen Morrison for the work and time they have spent to make their home a beauty spot in the community. They were awarded fifth prize at the awards night banquet for the beautification of Wellington County for the plowing match.
Ed and Jean Stewart of Brisbane received first prize for commercial property. These properties are an asset to the beauty of Erin Township. The banquet was held at the Curling Club in Guelph.
