

TRAINS KEEP ROLLIN'

Just because summer's coming to an end doesn't mean the trains stop running at Rockwood's Radial Railway Museum, where the men who operated electrically-powered rail cars of a bygone era are still doing precisely that. The museum recently honored Acton-born Sir Donald Mann for his contributions to public transit service in southern Ontario and plans a Fall Extravaganza for the whole family Sept. 30. You won't want to miss it.

"Are you losing money on the job?"

"I took the H&R Block Income Tax Course last year and learned how to save on taxes. By claiming my college kids as dependants and by deducting my pension plan payments, I have more than paid for the course. I learned to adjust my previous years' returns and got back even more in refunds! If I were you I would call H&R Block for more information."
