Holmes plate

by Mark Holmes

Well, this is it: my first column. I've been itching for some time to start one and here it is. The reason for starting this column is basically to have some space to comment on the happenings and issues concerning sports in the Acton area.

While many columnists use their space to gripe and complain, I hope to get away from that trend, although I imagine at times I'll be bitching along with the best of them.

To begin with, I'll talk a little about myself. I grew up in a small town called Kincairdine, which is not at all unlike Acton. The people are quite friendly, many of the same issues that concern Actonians are the same, and sports is probably the most important leisure time activity.

To tell the truth, when I was spending three years in college preparing myself for a career in journalism, I certainly didn't see myself as a sports writer. However, having been at the Acton arena when the Acton Sabres finally got together and won a game and seeing the look on a 10-year-old face when he scored a goal for the first time in his life has made the job a pleasure.

I look forward each week to see local squads facing teams from other centres and beating the proverbial pants off them. It tends to create a firm loyalty to the town and its people, who were strangers a year ago when I first came to town.

I'd like to thank the many people who've made my job easier by sending in game reports and phone me once in a while to tell me what they and their teams are up to now.

I'd also like to say the coaches and the parents, who take the time to give each young sports enthusiast a chance to aspire to athletic greatness, certainly have taken on a noble responsibility.

Before this column starts turning into a book, I'd like to say one more thing. Ron and Carol Robinson, along with the AMHA organization, have taken it upon themselves to go above and beyond the call of duty in making the minor hockey organization in Acton something that every kid involved can be proud of.

The idea of sending two teams to Norway for exhibition hockey is something like the idea Sir Edmund Hillary must have had when he first stared at Mount Everest.

While many people said it couldn't be done, the AMHA never said never. Instead of relying on the parents to foot the bill the AMHA has taken on the task of raising thousands of dollars to send the teams overseas.

The benefits of such a venture go far beyond a great experience for the hockey players. The boys that go over will be representing Acton and for that matter all of Canada.

Acton is a town where residents have been screaming that they are losing their small town identity and with two teams travelling to Norway some of that identity may be restored.

The AMHA, with their noble and worthwhile causes, deserve more than just a passing interest from local people. They need support.

Stedman's manager Greg Smith pulled Sandra Andrews' ticket on Saturday in the Acton Minor Hockey Lottery. Andrews' ticket, number 1994 was sold by Bob Lazenby.

Foodland Atoms crush Eramosa

In round robin playoff action with Eramosa Red and Eramosa White, the AB Foodland Tri County Atoms have pummeled their opponents to establish a 3-0 record.

Matched against Eramosa White on August 27 Chris Schick led the Acton squad to an 8-1 win with two runs to his credit.

Also scoring for Acton were Kenny Jaffray, Chad Rowsell, David Deforest, Troy MacDougall, Scott Rickerby and Andy Brouwer.

The lone Eramosa run came late in the fifth inning to break the Foodland shutout.

In game two on August 28 Acton again dominated their opponents as they blanked Eramosa White 13-0.

Deforest led the Acton scoring drive with three runs including a homer in the fourth frame and Rowsell pegged a pair of runs.

Scoring singles in the effort were Jaffray with a homerun, Jason Dunn, MacDougall, Kyle Thomson, Graham Ruse, Schick, Brouwer and Matthew Ginn.

Last Wednesday Foodland continued their winning ways as they pounded Eramosa Red 8-1.

Jaffray was the star of the match with two runs including a homer in the second inning and Dunn, Deforest, Thomson, Michael Scheil, Rickerby and Brouwer added singles.

Eramosa Red broke the Acton shutout with a homerun in the second inning.

Queen's take win and loss

Mini-Squirt

In Mini-Squirt soccer action this week, Queen's Tire claimed a win and a loss.

In their first game Queen's worked over the T-Birds for a 2-1 win and then battling against Bob's Angels they lost out 1-0.

Queen's net finder against the T-Birds was Patrick McMahon and Andrew Priestman tallied the lone T-Bird's marker.

The McIntyre triplets, Derek, Philip and Brian played some outstanding soccer for the T-Birds.

In their first upset of the season Queen's Tire lost to Bob's Angels when Doug Frehs found the net. Blake Butler did well in net for Queen's stopping a penalty shot.

Atom

In the Atom division Holland Shop

defeated Desmonds in the lone match this week.

Sheldon Stuckless led the way for Holland Shop with two goals and help from Marcus Higgins, Jason Higgins and David Patey with one goal each clinched the win.

Hitting the mark for Desmonds were Jason Pun, Kevin Pettipher and Philip Williamson.

Mosquito

In the lone Mosquito game this week Vets Pets dumped Rockwood 5-2.

Chris McGeagle and Wayne Bousfield each scored twice for the winning side and Michael Thompson added a single marker to round out the score.

Larry Zions and Jason Massey scored for Rockwood.

Oldtimers split wins with Milton squad

Facing Milton in two games this week the Halton Hills Firestone Oldtimers drew a win and a loss.

In the first of the two game series, the Acton squad clipped their hosts 4-3 and then at home Acton lost out 8-1.

In their winning effort against Milton, Acton started off on the wrong foot, allowing Milton to tally a two-run lead after five innings but a rally started by Carl Leybourne in the seventh secured the win for Firestone.

Leybourne, who started off the rally with a double base hit, moved into scoring position on a single by Bob McKay. Another single by Bruce MacPherson sent Leybourne home and then a triple by Wes Kutasienski brought both McKay and MacPherson across home plate. Kutasienski was put on third on the play.

The final game winning tally came from a home run by Bob Jarrett in the seventh inning.

Unfortunately for Acton in their home match with Milton the opposing pitcher was hot striking out 13 Firestone batters.

Gaining two runs in the second, singles in the third and fourth, two runs in the fifth and two in the seventh Milton walked away with the game.

The lone Acton run came from Bob Jarrett in the seventh inning. After singling to first Jarrett moved into scoring position on a double by Dave Black. A single by Gus Jeffries sent Jarrett home.
