

Steamer's done it again

Terrific musical and feature shows include Canadian Tire stunt drivers

Well, it looks like Steamer Emmerson's done it again. Done what? Well he's put together another terrific show of musical and feature entertainment that will offer visitors to this year's fair more than their money's worth.

At 7.30 Friday evening, the Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band will perform until 8 p.m. and they will be followed by the feature entertainment on the main stage in front of the new bleachers at the Fairgrounds.

Eddie Dijon, a comic magician, is a sure-fire hit for the kids. His act combines comedy, magic with balloon sculpting, and a number of fascinating tricks.

Also performing are the Alpine Dancers from Kitchener's Octoberfest. Their folk dancing and colorful costumes are sure to be eye appealing.

Providing musical accompaniment is the band "Jubilee." This four piece group combines fiddle, banjo, tuba and cymbals for a most versatile musical sound including ragtime, country polka and gay 90's singalong music.

On Saturday, the organizers have a giant Invitational Break Dance Competition. This is the chance for all the local would-be Michael Jacksons to get out and compare their stuff to some of the best break dance crews in Ontario. Break dancing has really taken off and the organizers expect this part of the show to be a major attraction. 1-6 Saturday.

Saturday afternoon, Grassroots, the bluegrass band from Mississauga, returns again this year, to perform from 5-7 p.m. on stage. This show should not be missed by any fans of bluegrass music.

Stunt Drivers

Saturday night is a big night at the fair when the Canadian Tire Stunt Drivers take the spotlight with their thrilling show which starts at 7.30. These deliberately-mad drivers—both female and male—show off their high-speed, precision driving skills in hot new unmuffled fuel-injected 5-litre Fords. The breathtaking, fast-paced performance includes two-wheeled driving exhibitions in stock-model Fords that would guarantee breathtaking of another kind if attempted off-track.

In another slam-bang part of the show, a number of condemned vehicles get the final coup de grace in an end-over-end example of "wrecked excess."

The only slow driving in the show is exhibited by the Stunt Drivers' clown, Koko, who duplicates the driving stunts in his own fun-car.

The Canadian Tire Stunt Drivers is all round entertainment that goes all out to please the entire family. Be sure to catch this act Saturday evening.

Sunday at 1 p.m. Grassroots return for another foot-stomping, toe-tapping show from the stage at the centre of the fairgrounds.

Stunt drivers at this year's Fair have a thrilling show in store on Saturday night starting at 7.30.

Yep, Steamer's done it again, and the members of the Georgetown Fair Board as well as visitors to this year's 138th. Annual Fall Show are going to be glad he did. Don't miss it!
