

Curran-Majeury vows at Knox Church

Angela Curran and Bryan Majeury were united in marriage on July 7 at Knox Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Curran of Carbonear, Newfoundland and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Majeury, RR 1 Limehouse.

Rev. Peter Barrow conducted the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a full-length lace over satin gown with seed pearls, lace sleeves and a matching veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses with white baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Beverly Curran, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Joanne Rumbolt, friend of the bride and Liz Majeury, sister of the groom. Their dresses were made of mauve sheer over satin with bustles at the back. The attendants carried white fans with mauve lace, mauve forget-me-nots and large pink roses.

Best man was Rex Rumbolt, friend of the groom. Ushers were Perry Armstrong, friend of the groom and Luc Savoie brother-in-law of the groom. The best man and ushers wore black tuxedos with white shirts, black bow ties and a mauve carnation boutonniere. The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails, a white ruffle shirt, black bowtie and red rose boutonniere.

polyester dress with lace bodice and a matching jacket with a corsage of light and deep pink roses.

Guests attended the wedding from Carbonear, Newfoundland, Toronto, Huntsville, Orangeville, Cambridge, Mississauga, Inglewood, Brampton and Georgetown, with Kevin Sandifer, brother-in-law of the groom as the photographer.

Prior to the wedding the bride was entertained at two showers. A linen shower given by Beverly Curran and Joanne Rumbolt, followed by a miscellaneous shower given by Brenda Taylor and Carol Savoie, sisters of the groom. The bride and groom were entertained at a Jack and Jill party held at RR 1 Limehouse, given by the groom's family.

Angela Curran and Bryan Majeury exchanged vows at Knox Church early in July. The couple are making their home at RR 5, Georgetown.
