Mame needs more men

Georgetown Globe Productions is looking for men to audition for the February, 1985 production of the Broadway Musical "Mame." Men of all ages, sizes and voice ranges are needed. Perhaps you have performed in high school or university or would just like to try your hand at being on stage.

There are many parts, such as the dominating Mr. Babcock, the servant, the snobby Mr. Upsom, Beauregard Jackson Pickett Burnside, handsome, debonaire, comedy role with a strong southern accent, Patrick Denis as a young man age 19-20 or maybe you can see yourself as one of Mame's friends in the chorus.

A special part in Mame is Patrick Denis as a young boy. This part calls for a young man age 10 years approximately with a strong speaking voice and good singing ability.

Having seen some of the school musicals recently in the area we are confident that there is a "Patrick" out there in the community—this is a big change. Parental permission is required.

Auditions for chorus and principals are September 27 and September 29 respectively. To get your material and appointment don't delay, call Linda Parker, producer at 519-853-0361 (Limehouse).

Rae delayed Bill on porn

In June the Georgetown arm of Citizens Against Violent Pornography sponsored a clip and mail coupon supporting passage of legislation bringing video tapes under the jurisdiction of the Ontario Film Review Board. Those who replied received letters from both Dr. Elgie and NDP leader Bob Rae. Some of the respondents found Mr. Rae's letter intimidating and the group has replied to Mr. Rae's letter, as follows:

Dear Mr. Rae:

We are happy to be informed that you have received clip and mail coupons regarding legislation over video tapes, which our group sponsored in two local newspapers. Your staff's forceful response has made us aware of just how affective such a campaign can be.

In your letter of July 6, 1984, you state that legislation proposed by a majority government cannot be prevented by the opposition. This is obvious. What you have done in threatening prolonged debate just before the House was scheduled to close and has other business to tend to, is to seriously delay the progress of this bill. You have prevented the public debates you claim to want on this issue from taking place this summer and have postponed the date that this legislation will become law by at least four months.

May we point out that second reading does not make legislation law. You could have used your delay tactics before third reading and allowed an all-party committee to study the bill and hold public forums on it this summer. As you know, after Thanksgiving when the House reconvenes, committees which are relatively free now will again be inundated with budget and other pressing matters. The desensitization process the public will experience between now and the time Dr. Elgie's bill finally becomes law is only accelerated by the increasingly violent nature of current pornography.

You claim that in your opinion, civil libertarians number millions in Ontario. We would suggest that those most vocal against Dr. Elgie's bill are those who profit the most from pornography. Others, responsible citizens, parents, teachers, clergy are becoming more vocal in their support of legislative controls, as they are made aware of the issue. We are encouraged that the Provincial NDP did approve a resolution supporting a system of film classification and licensing despite the "millions of Ontarians" you assume oppose such legislation.

You insist that no one including ourselves had prior knowledge as to the specifics of Bill 82. This is true. However, the intent and issues being addressed by the bill have been well known for some time. Anyone concerned should have had his arguments well prepared and thought out in time for debate of this most important piece of legislation.

Citizens Against Violent Pornography is a group of men and women who have been actively concerned for the past year and a half with video violence and child pornography. We are interested in any legislative initiatives made in this regard and appreciate hearing your views.

Yours truly,
Gail Rutherford,
Chairman.
