

Top family therapist plans workshop here

An internationally-known family therapy expert will add Halton Hills to an itinerary that already includes New York and Dallas when he conducts a workshop on "Communication within the Christian Family" here November 24.

Dr. Stan Skarsten, clinical services director at Toronto's Institute of Family Living, will conduct a day-long workshop at Georgetown's Knox Presbyterian Church, whose members are sponsoring his visit.

Registration is necessary by October 12 for the workshop, which runs 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. with a lunch break and costs $10 per person.

For more information, call 877-7585 or 877-0487.

Included in the day's agenda will be a self-scoring test that measures various aspects of the participant's personality. Though the test would normally cost $30, it is provided at no extra charge as part of the workshop.

Skarsten will also discuss patterns of communication, body language, solutions to conflicts and marriage enrichment skills. Skarsten's Institute of Family Living provides Christian counselling to families and individuals while working closely with the Ontario Christian Family Life Foundation. Skarsten himself is a consultant to the Salvation Army, several international missionary organizations, various churches and to the Provincial government on matters regarding emotionally disturbed children.

Formerly chief social worker at the Clarke Institute in Toronto, Skarsten is a member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy and conducts marriage enrichment sessions for people of all denominations and ministers' retreats for organizations like World Vision.

Skarsten regularly visits Africa and Haiti preparing and assessing missionaries. He followed up a workshop tour that took him to Colorado, New York and Dallas last spring with a summer visit to Kenya and Zaire, where he helped Inland Missions delegates through his seminars on interpersonal skills.

Household Hints

From Pauline McNally

Smooth a sheet of clear contact behind switch plates, covering the surrounding area. Washable, it will keep finger prints off the wall.

Extra flavor for your pie crusts: crush broken cookies into crumbs and mix with graham cracker crumbs. Crumb crusts are a cool kitchen treat on hot days.

There's still hope for old shoes that are badly scuffed. Rub with a piece of raw potato and they'll hold polish better, shine up like new.

PROCLAMATION "AGRI-FOOD WEEK 1984"

WHEREAS the prosperity and well-being of this municipality and of Canadian society as a whole are closely tied to the health and prosperity of our agricultural industry, and

WHEREAS the increasing separation between the farm and non-farm ways of life has led to a lack of awareness and understanding on the part of the non-farm population of the contributions and complexities of modern agriculture in today's economy, and

WHEREAS Agri-Food Week provides an opportunity for Halton residents to focus attention on the agricultural industry and thereby develop greater understanding and support for the source of our high-quality food supply,

I, Peter Pomeroy, Chairman of the Regional Municipality of Halton, on behalf of Regional Council and the Halton Agricultural Advisory Committee, do hereby proclaim the week of October 1 through October 7 to be Agri-Food Week 1984.

Dated at Oakville, this 3rd day of October, 1984.

PETER D. POMEROY
Regional Chairman

THE REGIONAL MUNICIPALITY OF

Halton
