School Support Group to publish cook book

by Patil Freier

The teachers at Speyside School recently held a corn roast at the school for parents and students. It was a successful and informal way for parents, teachers and students to meet and talk, and get the new school year going. An unplanned highlight occurred when a hot air balloon made an unexpected appearance, floating over the school.

The Speyside School Support Group held their first executive meeting of the 1984-85 school year. This is a group of concerned citizens, interested in coordinating community support through Speyside School. The group has plans for many activities, and with the help of volunteers throughout the community, are looking forward to another exciting year.

As an example, their first fund-raising project for the school is taking shape now. With the enthusiastic cooperation of students and parents, the group will be publishing a limited number of copies of the Bi-Centennial Speyside Cookbook.

This book will be filled with delicious recipes from local kitchens, and the cover will be selected from hand-drawn submissions from the students at the school.

The group has also set up a meeting regarding the North Area Consolidation Study. On November 1, Ron Chatten, principal of Speyside School and Dick Howitt, the Board of Education Trustee for the Speyside area, will be on hand to answer any questions from concerned parents regarding the study, and declining enrolments. Concerned citizens of Speyside and parents of children at Pineview School are invited to attend the meeting on Thursday, November 1, at 7:30 at Speyside School.

Morris Kejr, manager of Choicela Farms had the honor of being involved in the recent Royal visit to Toronto. He was the postillion rider for the team of horses drawing the Landau carriage that carried the Queen. Mr. Kerr rode from the Royal York Hotel to Queen's Park in the morning, and into Exhibition Stadium in the afternoon. We should feel proud that a member of our community was a part of this Royal event.

Students of Speyside School made a very good showing at the recent Kelso Cross Country Meet. The students trained at home and at school under the guidance of Coach Rick Coe.

The standings were as follows: Atom Girls: Karen Pettipher 9th, Becky Boycott 13th, Jennifer Kerr 24th, Aimee Kamminga 48th, Becky Lopers 55th, Jenny Douglas 89th, Lisa Ball 102, Michelle Harrison 94, Dee-Ann Fisher 104. Atom Boys: Jason Dipersio 9th, Matthew Armstrong 46, Lees Martin 64, Jamie Bicklin 76, Alan Knight 86, Brad Fisher 116, Bruce Rogers 122. Bantam Girls: Julia Pinsen 50. Bantam Boys: Kevin Pettipher 2, Johathan Kamminga 99, Scott Hooper 100. Junior Girls: Becky Armstrong 58, Debbie Lori Wilson. Junior Boys: Joshua Hayes 85.

Coming events to watch for in Speyside are: The first Movie Night will be held Friday, Oct. 9 at 7:00 p.m. in the Speyside School Gym. Families are invited to attend this fun showing of movies, all geared toward Halloween.

So, that's about it for now. Please let me know of anything of interest, that I may not know about! Contributions of any news or events are extremely welcome.

Chuck Swindoll MINISTER WARNS AGAINST RELIGIOUS OVEREXPOSURE

What's this? A minister who warns against "overexposure to godliness"? Sure enough, that's part of the Rev. Charles R. Swindoll's message in a new film called "Godliness: The Perils of Holiness Christianity".

In the film, to be shown at the Cadovale Community Centre, Cadovale Park, Georgetown, at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, November 18, 1984, Swindoll calls for people who work for churches and church related institutions to resist the temptation to insulate themselves from the outside world.

"I am most concerned about Christian ministers, Christian schools, Christian churches and Christian hot houses" says the best selling author and minister. "There is a constant barrage of 'God talk' in these places, a lot of words that have long since lost their meaning".

Swindoll says that too much exposure to "overload" language often produces cynics and burned out Christians.

The film is part of the "Strengthening Your Grip" series, which will be shown on consecutive Sunday nights, October 28, November 2, at 6:30 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Georgetown Alliance Church.

Other topics include "Promises", "Anger", "Lust", "Godliness", "Annoyance", "Authority".

The public is invited to view all six films.
