Board briefs

Salary Increases
Wally Beavor, the Director of Education will be getting a bigger paycheck. School board trustees carried a motion at the Oct. 11 meeting to increase Beavor's salary by 4.5 per cent to $80,450. They also voted to give a 4.5 per cent raise to the top administrators. Effective last July 1, the new salary range for superintendents will be between $68,600 to $72,100 and between $62,550 to $65,850 for assistant superintendents and superintendents of schools.

No school closure
The possible closing of Joseph Gibbons School will be put off by the School Board until the current study on the North Area Boundary and a future North Consolidation study has been completed, trustee voted last Thursday. Joseph Gibbons has reached the point where it is operating at only 30 per cent of its functional capacity. The school is currently twinned with Limehouse Public School. Ron Chapman, superintendent of North schools said he would not like to see Joseph Gibbons closed because it is such a happy school.

Enrolment drops
There are 867 less students at their desks this year in elementary schools. Enrolment has dropped 3.3 per cent from the 1983 enrolment. The enrolment figure as of Sept. 30 stands at 25,193. Secondary school enrolment is now 18,270, a decrease of 480 students or 2.6 per cent from the 1983 enrolment. Total enrolment including 114 TMH students is 43,577, a decrease of 1,359 students. The North Halton has a total of 7,404 elementary students, a drop of 269 from last year and 4,122 secondary students.
