Rock-a-long WI children's gifts

By MARGARET DYER

The November meeting of the Rock-a-long Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. B. Ramsden, Acton, with 13 members and one visitor present.

The meeting was opened with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Mrs. John Ramsey gave thoughts o Remembrance. Mrs. Jack Glendenning gave a very appropriate and touching eulogy for Mrs. Bert LeRoy, our president, who passed away in October after a lengthy illness.

Nov. 12 at 7.30 p.m., there is to be a Standing Convener's Workshop at Arkell United Church. All conveners were urged to attend.

We are to continue as members of the Wellington County Historical Society.

The committee in charge of Christmas Cheer reported to the group and they are to receive our help and support as requested.

Mrs. John Ramsey was elected president of the branch and Mrs. George Mitchell first vice president. Mrs. Lloyd Dyer was elected assistant secretary-treasurer.

Dec. 4 is our Christmas meeting and is to be held at home of Mrs. Arnold McDuffe, buffet supper at 6.30. Roll call is to be answered with a wrapped Christmas gift for a child to be donated to the Salvation Army.

Mrs. B. Ramsden and Mrs. K. Spence, conveners for Citizenship and World Affairs, were in charge of the program. Mrs. Ramsden introduced Mr. and Mrs. Hart of Acton who gave us a very interesting tour of the Holy Land by slide and tape.

YOU NEVER KNOW

Churchill Orchestra adds much to service

A very impressive Remembrance Day service was conducted by Graeme Dondale, our pastoral assistant.

A lovely arrangement of red carnations was placed in the church in loving memory of Wilfred Waldie by the family.

Following two minutes of silence, John Duenk played The Last Post on the trumpet. An orchestra comprised of Ellen Birkhard and Vern Denny—violins; Adela Martin—viola; Dee Kirk and Keith Barber playing the cello and John Duenk on the trumpet added greatly to the service by playing the Prelude as well as accompanying Marie Anderson, our organist.

Other renditions were given by Graeme Dondale who played the guitar and sang "Let There Be Peace on Earth" with the Junior Choir. The Men's Choir comprised of Jack Denny, Bill Thompson, Hank Walmsa, Wally Ella and Al Crawford sang Hymn to Canada and To God Be the Glory.

We were all delighted to have Joanne Turner out to church after her lengthy stay in hospital in Guelph and recuperation at home.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dondale, parents of Graeme who were visiting from Ottawa.

The travelogue on his trip to the Holy Land will be presented by Craig Rumble, our former Pastoral Assistant at the church tonight (Nov. 14) at 7.30. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome.

Ebenezer Joy of sharing

By MRS. R. McLEAN

Sunday was observed as the first of three stewardship Sundays. Kerry Thomson, Diane Magee and John Kitching read the scriptures.

A minute of silence was observed in honor of those who had served and died in the war.

Judy Kitching spoke briefly for the Mission and Service committee. It includes outreach work and service in isolated communities.

The Rev. Sam Wigston spoke on seeking a balance in our stewardship. We can get depressed with how serious world problems are.

We can have joy, realizing that we are not completely helpless in the face of tragedies. The call comes to us, "To whom much is given, much will be required. Inequities will remain. We are called to commit ourselves for ongoing support to try to alleviate tragedies throughout the world.

Do we give enough? Could it be more? We will know the joy that comes from sharing.
